CLASSROOM POLICIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Canvas

All assignments and tests are on Canvas. It is your responsibility to:

- Submit (under Assignments & Submissions).
- Check your grades on the left side bar regularly.
- Use the grade calculator.

All assignments should be submitted online in WORD with proper format. Also see Modules/Getting Started/Format Example.

Communication will be through:

- Announcements
- Discussions
- Virtual Office Hours/Optional
- Email
- Chat

Participation in In-Person Class:

You should read the chapters and look at slides ahead of time in order to give meaningful participation in class discussions.

Assignments

All four assignments should be submitted online according to guidelines. You have until 11:59 p.m. on the night due. Submissions after the due date will not be accepted. Points will be deducted for incorrect format. Check your grade and comments under Canvas.

Very Important: Key in your points into the grade calculator under Modules/Getting Started/Grade Calculator.

Make-up Policy

Exams should be taken on dates according to the schedule. If you have an illness or emergency, a makeup exam may be given. Being unprepared or having to work is not an excuse. If you have a connection or outage problem, let me know immediately to make arrangements before the due date.

For the IN-CLASSES (MANA 3311.01 AND .002), attendance will be taken and used if you are on the borderline. We have a total of 26 classes. If you have 60% or 16 of the class meetings, I will assign the higher grade.

Ethics on Exams

You may use books, notes, and slides. However, you must take the exam alone. It would be highly unethical for others to help. Do not copy the exam. Although these resources are available, my advice is to already know the material as you are timed for 2 hours.
