Teaching Strategies:

Discussion Boards:

- There will be eight ASSIGNMENTS that must be addressed on the discussion board.
- The time required to complete assignment varies, so I recommend reviewing the assignment early and planning your time accordingly.
- To earn points in this class you MUST complete the task during the assigned time, and for maximum points you must follow the instructions given in the description of the assignment. You will receive full credit if you complete all of the described requirements for each assignment.
- It's important to know that after the first introductory discussion you DO NOT need to respond to the postings of your classmates. In this class these assignments are offered in the discussion board format to allow those who are interested in reading others' responses to do so. You can add words of encouragement to others if you have some to offer, but it is NOT required and is not part of the assignment. (I sometimes assign extra credit for unusually rich answers to assignments though.)
- Discussion Boards will typically be graded within three days of the closing of the assignment.

Required Text, Materials/Supplies, and Related Readings: (2)

Lopez, S. J., Pedrotti, J. T., & Snyder, C. R. (2019) Positive Psychology: The Scientific and Practical Explorations of Human Strengths, 4th edition. ISBN 978-1-5063-5735-5.

Frankl, V. (19XX) Man's Search for Meaning. (You can choose any version of the book, there are several. Insert the proper publication date for your reference page on your reflection paper. You can also listen to it and include time stamps, or read and include location stamps if there are no page numbers.)

NOTE: A student at UT-Tyler is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from a university affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Course Policies:

Cheating on exams, and the paper is expressly forbidden. Do not use any notes, or powerpoints, notecards, or ANY prompts while taking the two exams. Please review the academic dishonesty policies of the University of Texas at Tyler. Do not use any portion of a paper you or anyone else wrote in your Frankl Reflection paper. Plagiarism or using portions of (or all of) a paper for two separate assignments is called self-plagiarism and will result in a failing grade on the assignment, and possibly the class.

Timely completion of assignments is very important in this course. If you are unable to complete an assignment by its deadline you MUST send an email prior to missing the assignment, unless there is an emergency and you are physically or mentally unable to contact the instructor in advance. Examples of an excused absence would be health related and should be accompanied by a doctor's note when possible (either for yourself, a partner, or a dependent family member), or another emergency outside of your control.

Important Dates for Readings and tests:

*Please note: The PowerPoints should serve as a good summary, but it's recommended that you read/skim each chapter first, then review the PowerPoints. The chapters in the books are interesting, so skimming first, then reading through the PowerPoints will make remembering the material much easier. Each test will cover the material covered prior to the test, plus any basic building blocks for the class. Although the FINAL EXAM is comprehensive I will provide a thorough PowerPoint review. If you study the PowerPoint you should do well on the final exam.

Links to an external site.Links to an external site.Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. (For Fall, the Census Date is Sept. 12.) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Links to an external site.Links to an external site.Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date (per the UT Tyler Academic calendar) is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions or exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services

Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
