Office Hours & Email Etiquette

I am here to help you and I want each of you to do well in this course! Though I do not have set office hours, I am always happy to meet with you immediately before or after class. If those times do not work for you, please feel free to contact me to schedule another meeting time.

The best way to contact me is through email. I will check and respond to emails during the workweek, Monday through Friday, 8 am - 5 pm. I will do my best to answer promptly, but please allow 24 hours for a response. If you contact me through email, please use formal email etiquette and use your UT Tyler student email address if you wish to get a response.

ATTENDANCE IS MANDATORY:

Three absences = final grade reduced by 1 letter grade

More absences than three, and the student should consider dropping the course. Students are expected to attend every class period, arriving before the scheduled class time, and not leaving before the scheduled conclusion. Any absence, with the exception of emergencies or illness, will adversely affect grades. Students are encouraged to inform the instructor prior to any scheduled absences and to email the morning of unexpected absences.

- LEAVING EARLY: please notify the instructor BEFORE the class begins. If you leave before dismissal, you will be counted as absent for that day.
- ARRIVING LATE: If you arrive more than 5 mins late, you will be counted absent from class.
- Three late arrivals and/or leaving early will count as one absent day. Each additional late arrival or leaving early will count as additional absent days.

Student Absence due to Religious Observance: Students who anticipate being absent from class, due to a religious observance are requested to inform the instructor of such absences by the second class meeting of the semester.

Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities: If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

7. The Department of Art and Art History reserves the right to select works from the exhibition to accession into its permanent collection.

CLASS REQUIREMENT FOR SRX:

- A. CREATING STUDIO ART FOR SRX: All new work that is created during the senior year (fall - spring; spring-summer-fall) at UTT under the supervision of your professor at UTT is eligible for consideration in the senior exhibition. Students are required to be in constant communication with their studio faculty during the entire creative process for the work to be considered. Participation in class critiques and individual critiques specifically for the chosen work is highly recommended.

B. DOCUMENTATION (physical copies and digital files):

Students will create the following documents:

1. Artist statement
2. Biography
3. CV
4. Poster
5. Gallery talk outline (not included in Thumb drive)
6. Press Release (not included in thumb drive)

Additional documentation required to be submitted include the following:

i. Faculty Approval Sheet: Students need to obtain written approval from their faculty for each artwork and its presentation in the exhibition. The approval must be from the studio wherein the work was created.

- This SIGNED sheet along with thumbnail images and details of the work that is signed off must be given to the SRX instructor one (1) week prior to the installation date. Failure to submit this sheet by the due date will automatically lower your grade by one letter.

Remember to keep a copy of the form for your final submission

- ii. Gallery coordinator assistance form to be submitted with the Documents in the envelope provided to you.
- iii. Thumb drive with 3 folders: SEE ATTACHEMENT FOR DETAILS
  - a. Documents
  - b. Images
  - c. Video

C. EXHIBITION:

Students should be prepared to participate in a group exhibition with their graduating colleagues.

Students will be involved in the various aspects of the group exhibition, including:

Press Release: Students are responsible for writing the news release for the group exhibition and sending it to the Gallery Coordinator at least 4 weeks prior to the exhibition opening date.

Creating an Exhibition Poster: Students are required to follow image submission guidelines so that each student can make an exhibition poster. All students will vote on the design for the final Exhibition Poster. The poster is to be printed at the University Print shop location on the ground floor of the library.

Installation of art for SRX: It is expected that works will be presented in a professional manner. Presentation quality will be subject to approval by the instructor to the date of installation.

Graduating BFA candidates are expected to assist each other with their exhibit installations. The Gallery Coordinator, graduate students, other undergraduate students and work-study students DO NOT assist with student's exhibit installations. Students MAY NOT receive assistance from anyone other than those in their exhibiting group. The SRX instructor has the final approval over the installation of works in the exhibition. Installation should be ready at 8 am on the first date of the scheduled exhibition

If your work is not completely installed* prior to 8 am the day of opening of the exhibition, you will have earned the failing grade (automatic F) and will have to withdraw from the exhibition. This is non-negotiable.

*Completely Installed = finished hanging/placing in the gallery, titles (labels) placed in their proper position, lighting placement complete and area cleaned.

Publicity and Reception: Students will be involved in creating publicity for the exhibition, organizing a public reception and the food for the reception, serving and clean-up of the reception area.

Gallery Talk: Students will give 3-5 min minute presentations about their work in the gallery during the Senior Exhibition and take questions from the audience. Video recording of the Gallery talk will be done in consultation with the Gallery Coordinator and SRX instructor. This video file for your gallery talk should be included in the thumb drive due at the end of the semester.

Installation, lighting and take down of the exhibition are to be done under the proper instruction of the gallery coordinator.
