Spring 2024

Dr. Mandy Link

Zoom Office Hours: Mondays & Wednesdays 1 pm-2:30 pm or by appointment (see Zoom link in Canvas module)

Email: mlink@uttyler.edu or through Canvas

Course Description:

The Second World War was one of the most important, cataclysmic events of the twentieth century. In this course we will focus on understanding the roots of World War II in World War I and the interwar period. We will focus on the global nature of the war and spend the end of the course examining the long-term consequences of the war. While this course will explore the military and strategic aspects of the war, it will primarily focus on the social and cultural reasons and consequences of the war.

Online Structure:

This course will have at least two video lectures per week. There may also be additional videos, documentaries, and/or readings required. See the class schedule below and the class modules in Canvas for the week's required material.

Course Objectives:

By the end of the course, students should be able to do the following:

- analyze significant issues, trends and developments in the era of World War II
- demonstrate knowledge that history is not simply the recitation of names and dates, but instead is a fluid subject where interpretations are constantly changing as a result of different methodologies and patterns of analysis
- analyze and synthesize sources in order to put forward a well-supported argument of their own
- make a clearly written and clearly-presented argument, including a thesis and sufficient and well-used supporting detail

Required Readings:

Christopher Browning, Ordinary Men: Reserve Battalion 101 and the Final Solution

Edith Hahn Beer, The Nazi Officer's Wife: How One Jewish Woman Survived the Holocaust

Ian Buruma, Wages of Guilt: Memories of War in Germany and Japan

Additional readings to be distributed throughout course via Canvas.

Requirements and Grades:

Weekly responses (11 x 15 points)	165 points
Secondary Source Analysis (2 x 50 points)	100 points
• Ordinary Men & The Wages of Guilt
Primary Source Analysis (1)	50 points
• The Nazi Officer's Wife
Film Analysis (2 x 50 points each)	100 points
Final Exam	200 points
	615 points

Explanation of Assignments:

Weekly Responses: You will be required to write 11 weekly responses out of the semester. These responses should be two full pages in length and should address the major issues of the week, critically analyze these major issues, and include a discussion of the week's readings. Strong responses will synthesize lecture and the readings. Throughout the semester there will be movie and podcast additions to the weekly material. These must be included in your weekly response.

These are geared to help you prepare your thoughts for discussions and will provide a helpful tool when preparing for the final exam. These are also designed to make sure you're writing every week as this is the best way to improve your writing and analytical skills. These are due Sundays by 11:59pm to Canvas. No late submissions accepted.

Secondary Source Analysis

For Ordinary Men & Wages of Guilt, students will answer the questions on the secondary source analysis form that should be downloaded and filled out. You will find this form in Canvas, Assignments, Secondary Source Analysis.

Primary Source Analysis

For The Nazi Officer's Wife, students will complete a primary source analysis. The form is available on Canvas under Assignments, Primary Source Analysis. This form should be downloaded and filled out.

WWII Film Analysis

Students will complete two WWII film analyses. Further instructions are available on Canvas along with a list of eligible films to choose from.

Final Exam

A take-home final exam will be due during finals week. The prompt for this exam will be distributed the week before finals. It will consist of an essay as well as short identification terms. The exam will cover material from the entire semester.

Extra Credit Opportunities

There may be extra credit opportunities during the semester.

THERE WILL BE NO INCOMPLETES for failure to complete an assignment. Assignments not turned in will result in a 0 for that assignment.

Course Structure:

1. Make sure to have your Canvas notifications sent to your email. You are responsible for staying up to date on deadlines, announcements, etc.
 - a. You are responsible for all class lectures, readings, and any other videos assigned.
2. Late papers lose 10 points from their grade for each day the paper is late. All assignments are due by the assigned due date on Canvas. Assignments turned in after that will lose points. Weekly responses are the exception and late submissions will not be accepted.
3. No emailed assignments are accepted. Assignments must be submitted in hard copy or on Canvas as directed on the assignment.
4. The classroom is a place for intellectual growth and to achieve that we must all be respectful and courteous to each other. Respect is a must! We will not always all agree (that is the heart of academics!) but it is crucial that we express our ideas in a respectful way. Students who do not adhere to this will be asked to leave.
 - i. Be courteous: Remain patient, ask/wait for clarification, avoid assumptions and rushed judgement. Forgive mistakes and apologize for errors.
 - ii. Be a good colleague: Remember your role as a student in the course. Make sure you're following directions. Be authentic and collaborative with colleagues. Be aware of your behavior and how others interpret your communication.
 - iii. Be professional: Proofread your own writing for spelling, grammar, and punctuation to prevent miscommunication. Avoid slang, sarcasm, or emotionally charged writing. Profanity and offensive language will not be tolerated.
5. When you email me, I will make sure to respond to you within 24 hours on weekdays. On weekends it may take longer but I will definitely get back to you within 48 hours at the latest.

- a. When you email me, address your email to: Professor/Dr. Link and sign it with your name.
- b. If you have a procedural question –about due dates, what the assignment requirements are, etc. –check the syllabus and the materials on Canvas, as your answer may be there, and you can know immediately, rather than awaiting an email reply.
- c. I will always address you directly and respectfully in my emails to each of you; I ask the same courtesy in return. If students continue to refuse to address the faculty by name, I reserve the right to not reply to the email.

I do not tolerate plagiarism, cheating, or collusion (see definitions below) and if you do any of these you will receive a 0 on that assignment with no option of resubmitting. You may also receive a 0 in the class depending on the egregiousness of the scholastic dishonesty and be reported to Judicial Affairs. Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies:

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. (For Fall, the Census Date is Sept. 12.) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar. Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date (Sept. 12th) is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)

- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid State-Mandated Course

Drop Policy:

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date). Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
