Required Text:

Locke, Joseph L. and Ben Wright, ed. The American Yawp: A Massively Collaborative Open U.S. History Textbook, Vol. 2, Since 1877. Redwood City: Stanford University Press, 2019.

Course Objectives:

Following the completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Identify and evaluate significant individuals and events in the United States since 1877
- Recognize and analyze the political, social, and economic changes in the United States since 1877
- Explain the causes and effects of domestic and international issues involving the United States since 1877

Expectations and Etiquette:

It is expected that everyone in this course, including the instructor, will maintain respect for one another. I encourage you to form your own thoughts surrounding the course material, but please note not everyone will share all of your sentiments. It is okay to disagree with someone, but it will be done respectfully and thoughtfully.

If the instructor determines that your behavior is inappropriate, you will be forwarded to the appropriate campus administrator and/or the campus police.

Methods of Evaluation:

Exams (50%) – Students will take three major exams in this course. The exams comprise materials presented within lectures, online videos, podcasts, and assigned readings. You will have fifty minutes to complete fifty multiple-choice and/or identification questions. The final exam is not cumulative.

Assignments (35%) – Within each weekly module on Canvas, you will be assigned readings from the textbook. After you complete the assigned readings, you will complete a quiz for each chapter. Please note that all chapter quizzes open on Mondays and are due by 11:59 pm the following Sunday.

Attendance (15%) – Class attendance will be recorded during every formal class meeting. In an effort to account for emergencies and/or illnesses, each student receives six excused absences. If you will be missing class due to a university-sponsored event, you must notify the instructor prior to the absence. Missing a class for a university-sponsored event does not count towards your excused absences.

Grade Scale:

A: ≥ 89.5
B: 79.5 – 89.4
C: 69.5 – 79.4
D: 59.5 – 69.4
F: $59.4 \leq$

March 17-21: Spring Break
March 28: Exam II
TBD: Final Exam

*See Canvas for a weekly description of class topics.

Note: At the end of the semester, final grades will not be rounded up.

Assignment & Exam Parameters:

Students are not allowed to take exams early, unless they are traveling for a university-sponsored event. Students are required to arrange work, travel, and social events around all assigned due dates. There are no make-up assignments or exams in this course. If you fail to complete an exam or assignment you will receive a zero grade. Unless otherwise noted, you are not allowed to use any resources (internet, textbook, notes, etc.) on exams. If the professor determines you have violated this rule, you will automatically fail the exam. In the event this happens a second time, you will automatically fail the course.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) & This Course:

UT Tyler is committed to exploring and using artificial intelligence (AI) tools as appropriate for the discipline and task undertaken. We encourage discussing AI tools' ethical, societal, philosophical, and disciplinary implications. All uses of AI should be acknowledged as this aligns with our commitment to honor and integrity, as noted in UT Tyler's Honor Code. Faculty and students must not use protected information, data, or copyrighted materials when using any AI tool. Additionally, users should be aware that AI tools rely on predictive models to generate content that may appear correct but is sometimes shown to be incomplete, inaccurate, taken without attribution from other sources, and/or biased. Consequently, an AI tool should not be considered a substitute for traditional approaches to research. You are ultimately responsible for the quality and content of the information you submit. Misusing AI tools that violate the guidelines specified for this course (see below) is considered a breach of academic integrity. The student will be subject to disciplinary actions as outlined in UT Tyler's Academic Integrity Policy.

For this course, AI is not permitted at all.
