Required Text:

Strain, Christopher B. The Long Sixties: America, 1955-1973. Malden: John Wiley & Sons, 2017.

Course Objectives:

Following the completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Identify and explain the roots of various civil rights movements in the United States
- Recognize and analyze both the social and political changes in American society between 1954-1973
- Outline the causes and effects of domestic and international issues/events during the Long Sixties

Expectations and Etiquette:

It is expected that everyone in this course, including the instructor, will maintain respect for one another. I encourage you to form your own thoughts surrounding the course material, but please note not everyone will share all of your sentiments. It is okay to disagree with someone, but it will be done respectfully and thoughtfully.

If the instructor determines that your behavior is inappropriate, you will be forwarded to the appropriate campus administrator and/or the campus police.

Methods of Evaluation:

Exams (50%) – There will be two major exams, a midterm and a final. Both exams will include a variety of question formats, including, but not limited to short answer, true/false, multiple choice, and essay.

Research Paper (30%) – Each student will select a topic that is relevant to our course. Research papers are due by 11:59 pm on April 11. Papers must meet the following parameters:

- You must use at least five academic secondary sources. You are encouraged, but not required to utilize primary sources in your research.
- Your paper must be properly formatted in the Turabian/Chicago style. Your paper should be double-spaced and written in Times New Roman 12-point font with one-inch margins.
- The final paper must be between eight and twelve pages. Please note that your cover page, footnotes/endnotes, and bibliography do not count towards your overall page length.
- One letter grade will be deducted for every calendar day the paper is late.

Attendance (20%) – Class attendance will be recorded during every formal class meeting. In an effort to account for emergencies and/or illnesses, each student receives six excused absences. If you will be missing class due to a university-sponsored event, you must notify the instructor prior to the absence. Missing a class for a university-sponsored event does not count towards your excused absences.

TBD: Final Exam

*See Canvas for a weekly description of class topics.

Note: At the end of the semester, final grades will not be rounded up.

Assignment & Exam Parameters:

Students are not allowed to take exams early, unless they are traveling for a university-sponsored event. Students are required to arrange work, travel, and social events around all assigned due dates. There are no make-up assignments or exams in this course. If you fail to complete an exam or assignment you will receive a zero grade. Unless otherwise noted, you are not allowed to use any resources (internet, textbook, notes, etc.) on exams. If the professor determines you have violated this rule, you will automatically fail the exam. In the event this happens a second time, you will automatically fail the course.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) & This Course:

UT Tyler is committed to exploring and using artificial intelligence (AI) tools as appropriate for the discipline and task undertaken. We encourage discussing AI tools' ethical, societal, philosophical, and disciplinary implications. All uses of AI should be acknowledged as this aligns with our commitment to honor and integrity, as noted in UT Tyler's Honor Code. Faculty and students must not use protected information, data, or copyrighted materials when using any AI tool. Additionally, users should be aware that AI tools rely on predictive models to generate content that may appear correct but is sometimes shown to be incomplete, inaccurate, taken without attribution from other sources, and/or biased. Consequently, an AI tool should not be considered a substitute for traditional approaches to research. You are ultimately responsible for the quality and content of the information you submit. Misusing AI tools that violate the guidelines specified for this course (see below) is considered a breach of academic integrity. The student will be subject to disciplinary actions as outlined in UT Tyler's Academic Integrity Policy.

For this course, AI is not permitted at all.
