Professor: Dr. Tim Seiter | Email: TSeiter@UTTyler.edu | Office: CAS 130 | Hours: Appt.

This course surveys significant themes in Native American history from the Paleolithic era to the present, with an emphasis on first peoples in what is now known as Texas. Students will explore topics such as Indigenous dominance, first encounters, assimilation, and genocide. At the end of the semester, students will see how Native American history continues to affect our nation today. Additionally, students will learn how to acquire high-quality sources and will create their own histories on otherwise unknown Native historical actors.

Extra Credit

Inspiration: Students who show up promptly and regularly for class will have the opportunity to earn extra credit in a method based on the Dungeons & Dragons “inspiration” system. Each point of inspiration provides 1 point on your final grade. A maximum of five points can be earned.

Academic Events: A multitude of UT Tyler departments regularly host public lectures and events on campus. Students may receive up to one point on their final grade for doing the following: (1) Provide evidence that you attended the entire event. (2) Write an essay of at least 300 words that provides the lecture's primary argument(s), a summary of content, and a discussion of at least one way in which the presentation relates to a historical topic from our course. (3) Email me the essay within two weeks of the event.

Class Policies

AI: In rare cases, generative AI may be used with prior instructor permission and appropriate attribution. If permission is unobtained and AI usage is detected, then the assignment will receive a zero and the student will be reported to the UT Tyler Honor Council. The student who cheated may also receive an immediate “F” for the course.

Attendance: I will keep attendance, but I will not penalize you for missing class. However, the greater the number of classes you skip, the more difficult it will be to pass.

Late Work: All assignments received late (without an excused absence) will receive a 10-point deduction from the total grade for every 24-hour period they are late, beginning at the due date/time. Assignments received more than five days late (without excuse or communication with the professor) will receive a grade of "zero."
