Notes on Grading:

- Essays will be graded according to the student's ability to fulfill the assignment guidelines, display use of critical thinking skills, and demonstrate an understanding of the elements of academic writing and writing processes, including standard academic English grammar and punctuation.
- Class participation and attendance is very important. Carefully and thoughtfully read assigned readings and complete homework before arriving to class. Daily grades are given each class period. There is no make-up for in-class writing. Students who miss class due to a religious observance or university-sponsored event must let the professor know ahead of the absence date as well as complete any daily or essay work on time.
- We will use Canvas to communicate various class announcements and due dates, as well as for quizzes, discussions, and out-of-class assignments and readings. Please check Canvas as well as your student email regularly. Per UT policy, all emails to the instructor must originate from a UT email or Canvas. Do not send me emails from your personal email.
- Plagiarism: If an essay is plagiarized or partly plagiarized (copied from another source without credit given), it will receive a grade of F with no option for revision. If plagiarism issues persist, the student will be in danger of failing the course.

Final Exam:

The final examination is an essay to reflect on your development as a writer. It is required to complete this class. Details will follow. If your course average is at or above 95% by the end of week 14, then you are exempt from the final exam.

Peer Reviews

You must bring a draft of your forthcoming paper to peer review sessions or you will be asked to leave and will be counted absent. When peer review is required of an assignment, there is no make up for missed in-class peer review.

Writing Conferences

Students will meet with instructor in one-on-one writing conferences this semester. You are required to bring a draft of your paper to the conference at the allotted time. If you miss a writing conference, your absence counts as a class absence and you lose 10 points on the paper. Times and dates are flexible and details will follow.

Revision

We will be drafting and revising as a part of class. In addition, you may submit any writing assignment (except for your final paper) for revision if you received a grade of C (79-70) or lower. You must let me know that you plan to revise within two days of receiving the grade and submit the revision within one week of receiving the grade. In this case, the original paper grade and the revised paper grade will be averaged.

The Writing Center

The UT Tyler Writing Center is a free service available to you for working with a trained writing tutor on your writing. They can help you one-on-one, in person or online, at any stage of the writing process. They are located in CAS 202 and you can look up their hours and other information at <http://www.uttyler.edu/writingcenter/>.

Students who visit the writing center will receive 5 bonus points on that paper when I receive an email confirming their visit. This applies once each time a paper is submitted.

Late Assignments

All papers will be submitted via Canvas and due by class time unless otherwise noted. Each day that a paper is late, 10 points will be deducted.

Attendance Policy

You are expected to attend class, to arrive on time, to remain awake, to have prepared assigned reading and writing, and to participate in all in-class editing, revising, and discussion sessions. You may miss four classes without any penalty to your grade, though an absence for any reason counts against this total. Any additional absences will deduct one letter grade from your final grade. For example, with five absences, an A drops to a B. With the amount of in-class writing and revising, attendance is strongly encouraged.

When you must miss a class, you are responsible for getting notes and assignments from a classmate. Please ask a classmate for notes or a recap. Special consideration for absences due to religious observance or university-sponsored events and activities is described in the UT Tyler policies below.

If you arrive after I have taken attendance at the beginning of class, you will be counted tardy. Three tardies will count as one absence. If you are late, it is your responsibility to make sure I have recorded your attendance at the end of class. If you miss more than 20 minutes of class either at the beginning or end, you will be counted absent.

Technology:

Silence cell phone BEFORE class starts and put it away. The ringing of cell phones and text messaging interrupts the flow of discussion and disrupts the class. Studies show that even the presence of a cell phone on a desk distracts students. Laptops are allowed for in-class research and writing.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar> Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Student Absence due to Religious Observance

Students who anticipate being absent from class due to a religious observance are requested to inform the instructor of such absences by the second class meeting of the semester.

Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities

If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

Social Security and FERPA Statement

It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number. The electronic transmission of grades (e.g., via e-mail) risks violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act; grades will not be transmitted electronically.

Emergency Exits and Evacuation

Everyone is required to exit the building when a fire alarm goes off. Follow your instructor's directions regarding the appropriate exit. If you require assistance during an evacuation, inform your instructor in the first week of class. Do not re-enter the building unless given permission by University Police, Fire department, or Fire Prevention Services.
