

English 2370.061 (Spring 2023)
Reading American Leadership
[Online Class]*

Dr. Ann Beebe CAS 250 Office: 903-565-5827 Email: abeebe@uttyler.edu I will post my cell # to Canvas	Office Hours: MF 9-10am & T 1-4pm (virtual) and by appointment [Zoom OH Rooms set up – email me for URL for a specific day]
--	--

*This class was created as an asynchronous online class in 2017 (pre-COVID).

We do not have a standard meeting time, and there are currently no Zoom discussions scheduled for ENGL 2370.

Welcome to English 2370, the sophomore-level course on American leadership. We will be reading examples of two genres in this class: speeches and essays. All our readings come from the pre-1865 American literary tradition. We will be asking a few basic questions. In various ways, our authors ask: “What do I value?” “What do I think society should value?” “What do I think my government should value?” “How do I accomplish change in my life, in society, in my nation?” “How do I become an ethical and effective leader?” “What do I expect of leaders in education, business, and politics?” “What characteristics of leadership can be identified and studied in classic readings by American leaders?” These questions all circle around an analysis of the theme of leadership. I hope that when the semester is over you will have discovered a couple of favorite new authors to add to your personal reading list. I also hope that you will have identified some pre-1865 leadership traits that you can apply to some area of your 21st-century life.

I proposed this course to the UT System in Fall 2016, and it was approved for the next calendar year. Since 2017 I have taught several sections of ENGL 2370 to students from almost every major on campus. I work hard to put together my classes, and I expect a great deal from my students. I expect all readings to be completed by the assigned date. I expect your reading to be active. Mark up your books (hardcopy & etexts) and take notes as you read. I expect everyone to participate substantially in Canvas discussion and listen respectfully to classmates. And lastly, if you have any questions about class policies, assignments, or readings, I expect you to ask them.

In return there are certain things you can expect from me. I will complete all the readings and plan lessons by the assigned date. I will give all assignments in writing and sufficiently in advance. I will grade and return all assignments in a timely manner. I will maintain your Grade Center on Canvas.

The primary goals of English 2370 are the instruction and daily practice of critical reading, thinking, speaking, listening, and writing. These are crucial skills for all the future doctors, lawyers, entrepreneurs, administrators, executives, politicians, and teachers.

Required Texts: [Please use these editions – new or used, hardcopy or ecopy.]

*All four books will be used in the first four weeks of the semester.

1. American Speeches: Political Oratory from the Revolution to the Civil War (Library of America, 9781931082976)
2. Great Speeches by Native Americans (Dover, 9780486411224) – The UTT Library has an etext version of this text. Visit the library website for more details.
<https://libguides.utt Tyler.edu/textbooks>
3. Selected Writings of Judith Sargent Murray (Oxford, 9780195078831) – I have created PDFs of the three Murray essays and uploaded them into a Canvas module in ENGL 2370.
4. Emerson's Prose and Poetry (Norton, 9780393967920)

Daily Schedule

[This schedule includes all major readings and assignments. Small additions or changes may be made. I will make any such changes in writing.]

Note about Time Management & Online Classes: A 12-hour schedule is considered full-time for a university student. Why? For every 3-credit class, a student is expected to spend 6 hours outside of the classroom reading and writing – 9 hours total per week for each 3-credit course. 12 hours in class + 24 hours outside of class = 36 hours = full-time student.

You all maintain some sort of weekly calendar where you block out time for your F2F classes as well as meetings, job schedule, appointments, etc. Block out 9 hours each week for your ENGL 2370 online course now. An online course does not magically get finished. You can work on your own schedule with an online class, but you must set the time aside each week to complete the reading, writing, and exams.

Week 1 Checklist (January 9-15):

Watch Welcome Video

Check that you have requested Canvas announcements to be forwarded to your email [Check your Patriots email daily during the semester.]

Post professional / personal introduction on the “Class Bios” Discussion Board

Draft your weekly schedule for the semester. Pencil in regular blocks of time to work on your online courses.

Watch for mid-week announcement of Team A or B assignment for the course [See syllabus & banked announcements for explanation of teams in ENGL 2370.]

Watch Week 1A / 1B video [Same reading for both teams in Week 1.]

Team A: Read Ralph Waldo Emerson, “The American Scholar” [Emerson, 56-69]

Team B: Read Ralph Waldo Emerson, “The American Scholar” [Emerson, 56-69]

This essay can be found online if your textbook is delayed:

<http://digitalemerson.wsulibs.wsu.edu/exhibits/show/text/the-american-scholar>

NOTE: If you find yourself without a textbook due to travel or some other circumstance, almost all these essays & speeches on the syllabus can be found online in some format.

Some of them can also be found in audible format.

Turn in Student Information Sheet (SIS) – Upload through “Assignments” icon [Click on the Question Mark ‘Help’ icon on the far-left side of your screen in Canvas if you need how-to instructions. You can download a printed guide with instructions or you can chat with a Canvas Help Desk consultant.]

Turn in Syllabus Signature Form (SSF) – Upload through “Assignments” icon [Students will be asked to acknowledge that they have read and understood the requirements for this course posted on the syllabus.]

Check the Sample Analysis and Application Answers handout posted in the module and under “Pages – View All Pages” for model answers from former students.

Turn in completed Analysis Handout for your assigned reading by midnight on Sunday

Turn in completed Application Handout for your assigned reading by midnight on Sunday

Note: All written work for ENGL 2370 is run through similarity programs when uploaded to Canvas. The assignments from former students are part of the comparison pool along with print and internet sources (Wikipedia, CourseHero, etc.).

Recommendation: If you tend to have internet or Canvas problems, email me your weekly homework as Word attachments before the due date.

Post your Canvas contributions on this week’s readings to the Week 1 Discussion Board [Discussion Boards will be closed at the end of each week. Students can still read posts on closed discussion boards. Click on the “Discussions” icon and scroll down to the “Closed for Comments” section.] See Participation section below for more information about ENGL 2370 Participation.

Week 2 Checklist (January 16-22):

Reminder: The UTT Library has a free etextbook for Great Speeches by Native Americans. See Textbook information above for the library URL.

Note: See email / announcement from Week 1 Wednesday with your Team Assignment.

Team A:

Read Red Jacket, 4 Speeches [Dover, 41-48]

Watch 2B Video

Post your Canvas contributions on this week’s readings to the Week 2B Discussion Board

Turn in completed Analysis Handout for your assigned reading by midnight on Sunday

Turn in completed Application Handout for your assigned reading by midnight on Sunday

NOTE: If your team has more than one reading in a given week, please adjust your approach to the Analysis Handout. Pick one of the texts for your Thesis and Main Claims answers. Any of the week’s assigned texts may provide key lines for you to analyze. All the texts should be consulted when you write your Application Handout.

Note: Print and ebook pagination can differ. The syllabus has the print pagination listed. If you are using the ebook, use your common sense. Look at the Table of Contents and / or index.

Note: All written work for ENGL 2370 is run through similarity programs when uploaded to Canvas. The assignments from former students are part of the comparison pool along with print and internet sources (Wikipedia, CourseHero, etc.).

Recommendation: If you tend to have internet or Canvas problems, email me your weekly homework as Word attachments before the due date.

After I review the analysis and application homework handouts for each week, I will ask some students to share selected answers on the appropriate Canvas discussion boards.

Students are responsible for ALL reading assignments from Weeks 1-6, regardless of team, for the Midterm Exam in Week 7.

Census Day – January 23. All online students must have participated in the course or be listed as “non-attending.” This designation may impact financial aid.

Week 3 Checklist (January 23-29):

OPTIONAL READING & HOMEWORK

The Murray essay assigned in Week 3 is the most challenging reading of the semester. I have made this reading optional.

- A student can elect not to read the essay & write the two homework handouts.
- OR – a student can read the essay and write one or both the handouts and “bank” the grades to replace a missing homework assignment later in the semester. The handouts for this Murray essay are due by the Sunday of Week 3. [The Analysis handout would replace another Analysis HO; the Application handout would replace another Application HO.]
- This Week 3 reading is the only extra credit option in ENGL 2370.
- This optional Murray essay will not appear on the Midterm Exam. [You will be reading required Murray essays in Week 10. Those essays will be on the Final Exam.]

Suggestion: If you decide not to read this Murray essay, don’t take a nap. Work ahead on the reading & homework for Week 4.

NOTE: The Week 3 columns will appear on your Grade Center, but the points have been zeroed out. I am leaving the assignments open so students have a place to upload the optional handouts.

Team A and Team B – if you decide to complete this extra credit work:

Reminder: I have created PDFs of the three Murray essays for this semester and uploaded them into a Canvas module in ENGL 2370.

Read Judith Sargent Murray, “Sketch of the Present Situation of America, 1794” [Murray, 49-68]

[Note: This Murray essay is the most challenging essay for the semester. Watch the video.

Review

a few timelines of 1790s American history. And bring a scholar’s curiosity & attitude to this assignment. Do not curl up in a ball on your floor and whimper. Good heavens! You CAN read and analyze these texts. Some texts just take a little effort.]

Week 15 Checklist (April 24-26):

Final Exam Week

The Final Exam Details handout has been posted in the Modules for Weeks 11-15.

The Final Exam will be due by the Wednesday at midnight of Week 15.

Additional Information

Grading:

Midterm Exam	15%
Final Exam	15%
Multimedia Project	20%
Analysis Handouts (11)* [One grade dropped]	20%
Application Handouts (11)* [One grade dropped]	20%
Canvas Participation / Performance	10%

NOTE: The 'F' grade for missing work is a 0, not a 60.

*The Murray handouts from Week 3 are optional. If a student submits them by the end of Week 3, those scores will be "banked" and used to replace a later lower handout grade.

The Census Date for this semester is January 23.

The last day to Apply for Graduation is March 1.

Registration for next semester starts on April 3. [Please see your academic or faculty advisor in March.]

The last day to withdraw from a class with a "W" is March 23.

Time Management:

You should expect to spend 2 hours outside class for every 1 hour in class. Translation: You should study 9 hours a week (minimum) for each 3-credit course.

[12 credit hours + 24 hours outside of class = 36 hours per week for a full-time student.]

Student Learning Outcomes:

- Critical Thinking: Students will be able to (SWBAT) critique selected literary readings on leadership based on an analysis of diverse perspectives, audiences, and leadership contexts.
- Communication: SWBAT incorporate relevant visual imagery and data appropriate to audience, purpose and genre in verbal presentations and written essays regarding leadership.
- Teamwork: SWBAT participate in collaborative learning teams to develop multimedia projects and presentations on leadership.
- Personal Responsibility: SWBAT identify ethical responsibilities of speaker and audience in speeches and essays from a variety of perspectives and contexts.

Canvas Participation / Performance:

At least three times a week, you should post comments on the readings to Canvas. Respond to an idea, image, quote, theme, symbol, character, persona, etc. in that week's reading assignment. Respond to a classmate's original post on the reading. [Do not simply agree or disagree. Enter into the discussion.] Your 10% participation / performance grade will come from these posts. Respectful and substantial replies to posts by your classmates will also supplement your participation grade. Your motto: read and respond / post. There should be no passive reading / participation in this class.

To clarify participation / performance expectations, here are some numbers:

15 Week Semester (14 classroom weeks + Finals Week)

14 x 3 = 42 posts = Passing Grade (C)

14 x 6 = 84 posts = Excellent Grade (A)

[Weeks 7 and 14 – cumulative posts. As you prepare for the midterm and the final exam, do some comparative analysis of the texts.]

A post = 150+ words

I will close each week's Discussion Board for comments on Sunday nights - midnight. You will still be able to read all posts if you scroll down to Discussion Boards – Closed for Comments.

Email Question: Could you tell me more about the ENGL 2370 participation?

Answer:

I have set up the weekly discussion boards so students can discuss anything / everything about the readings. The content is not evaluated. I simply want to give students a place to talk about the readings before they submit their handouts. Those assignments are evaluated.

At the end of the semester, I end up counting the participation grade in 2370 if it helps a student. If it brings their course grade down, I don't count it. [I have higher expectations for participation in my 4000-5000 level classes.]

Exams:

The midterm exam and final exam are cumulative. Students are responsible for all readings, regardless of team, assigned in the weeks before each exam. The exams should represent your individual work. Students are not allowed to consult or collaborate with anyone – classmates, family, friends, sources, internet, Writing Center, etc. Cheating or plagiarizing on either exam will result in failure of the exam and an academic dishonesty report. The student will also be encouraged to drop the course.

Analysis Handout:

I have posted the blank Analysis Handout Templates to Canvas. Each week, you will complete an individual analysis of your team's assigned reading:

- Essay's Thesis in your own words (100 words max, cite the essay)
- Summary of Essay's Main Claims in your own words (500 words max, cite the essay) - Support your answer with short quotes from the assigned reading
- Select 3 key sentences (not consecutive) and analyze each one separately (250 words each analysis max not counting the quote, cite the line) [Sample key line in video is ineligible for the handout.]
- [NOTE: There are TWO Analysis Handout Templates: Weeks 1-6 and Weeks 8-13. One question has been added to the Weeks 8-13 Template: Compare / contrast main claims of this week's essay with an essay from a previous week, 300 words max - Support your answer with short quotes from the assigned reading]

- I have set Canvas to drop your lowest Analysis Handout grade.
- The handouts should reflect your individual work. They are not group assignments. Cheating on a class assignment will result in failure of the assignment and an academic dishonesty report.
- NOTE: If your team has more than one reading in a given week, please adjust your approach to the Analysis Handout. Pick one of the texts for your Thesis and Main Claims answers. Any of the week's assigned texts may provide key lines for you to analyze. All the texts should be consulted when you write your Application Handout.
- See Week 3 for Murray special option

Application Handout:

I have posted the blank Application Handout Templates to Canvas. Each week, you will complete an application of your team's assigned reading:

- 5 Characteristics of Leadership (explicit and / or implied) in your own words (500 words max, cite the essay) – Support each leadership trait with short quotes from the assigned reading
- Contemplate the potential application of the leadership traits in:
 - Academic Life (100 words max)
 - Civic Life (100 words max)
 - Social Media Life (100 words max)
 - Professional Life / Career (100 words max)
 - Personal Life (100 words max) – Support all 5 areas with short quotes from the assigned reading
- [NOTE: There are TWO Application Handout Templates: Weeks 1-6 and Weeks 8-13. One question has been added to the Weeks 8-13 Template: Compare / contrast the leadership traits in this week's essay with traits from a previous essay, 300 words max - Support your answer with short quotes from the assigned reading]
- I have set Canvas to drop your lowest Application Handout grade.
- The handouts should reflect your individual work. They are not group assignments. Cheating on a class assignment will result in failure of the assignment and an academic dishonesty report.
- NOTE: If your team has more than one reading in a given week, please adjust your approach to the Analysis Handout. Pick one of the texts for your Thesis and Main Claims answers. Any of the week's assigned texts may provide key lines for you to analyze. All the texts should be consulted when you write your Application Handout.
- See Week 3 for Murray special option

Multimedia Project:

You have a chance to make these readings and these leadership traits your own with this individual class project. Here are the basic parameters:

- Cumulative – the project should demonstrate a grasp of the class readings and their assumed and proposed leadership traits
- Select one aspect of life (academic, civic, social media, professional, or personal)
- Craft a presentation to deliver to a high school audience: How would you lead students to improve their performance in this area? How would you encourage them to be leaders?
- Max time to play video or view slideshow (including embedded video) = 10 minutes
- Students are encouraged to incorporate the views of their classmates in their projects (example: Canvas quotes, video interviews). Classmates must give their permission to be quoted, and all quotes / clips must be correctly attributed.

The full assignment sheet for the Multimedia Project will be posted on Canvas by Week 9.

Late Work:

Late work will not be accepted. [NOTE: If you experience a life-changing event (serious illness, serious accident, tragedy in your family), please contact me as soon as possible. With documentation to substantiate the event, I am always willing to make schedule adjustments to help my students successfully complete my courses.]

Writing Center:

The UT-Tyler Writing Center provides professional writing tutoring for all students in all disciplines. If you wish to use the Writing Center, you should plan for a minimum of two hour-long tutorials per assignment: the first to provide an initial consultation and drafting plan, and the second to follow up. Be prepared to take an active role in your learning--you will be expected write and/or discuss your work during your tutorial. While Writing Center tutors are happy to provide constructive criticism and teach effective writing techniques, under no circumstances will they fix your paper for you. Appointments: 565-5995. More information: www.uttyler.edu/writingcenter. [They can make online appointments.]

UNIVERSITY POLICIES AND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION THAT MUST APPEAR IN EACH COURSE SYLLABUSUT Tyler Honor Code

Every member of the UT Tyler community joins together to embrace: Honor and integrity that will not allow me to lie, cheat, or steal, nor to accept the actions of those who do.

Students Rights and Responsibilities

To know and understand the policies that affect your rights and responsibilities as a student at UT Tyler, please follow this link: <http://www.uttyler.edu/wellness/rightsresponsibilities.php>

Campus Carry

We respect the right and privacy of students 21 and over who are duly licensed to carry concealed weapons in this class. License holders are expected to behave responsibly and keep a handgun secure and concealed. More information is available at <http://www.uttyler.edu/about/campus-carry/index.php>

UT Tyler a Tobacco-Free University

All forms of tobacco will not be permitted on the UT Tyler main campus, branch campuses, and any property owned by UT Tyler. This applies to all members of the University community, including students, faculty, staff, University affiliates, contractors, and visitors. Forms of tobacco not permitted include cigarettes, cigars, pipes, water pipes (hookah), bidis, kreteks, electronic cigarettes, smokeless tobacco, snuff, chewing tobacco, and all other tobacco products. There are several cessation programs available to students looking to quit smoking, including counseling, quitlines, and group support. For more information on cessation programs please visit www.uttyler.edu/tobacco-free.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated.

Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>.

Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar. Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average.

Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date). Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Disability/Accessibility Services

In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA) the University of Texas at Tyler offers accommodations to students with learning, physical and/or psychological disabilities. If you have a disability, including a non-visible diagnosis such as a learning disorder, chronic illness, TBI, PTSD, ADHD, or you have a history of modifications or accommodations in a previous educational environment, you are encouraged to visit <https://hood.accessiblelearning.com/UTTyler> and fill out the New Student application.

The Student Accessibility and Resources (SAR) office will contact you when your application has been submitted and an appointment with Cynthia Lowery, Assistant Director of Student Services/ADA Coordinator.

For more information, including filling out an application for services, please visit the SAR webpage at <http://www.uttyler.edu/disabilityservices>, the SAR office located in the University Center, # 3150 or call 903.566.7079.

The University of Texas at Tyler has a continuing commitment to providing reasonable accommodations for students with documented disabilities. Like so many things this Fall, the need for accommodations and the process for arranging them may be altered by the COVID-19 changes we are experiencing and the safety protocols currently in place. Students with disabilities who may need accommodation(s) in order to fully participate in this class are urged to contact the Student Accessibility and Resources Office (SAR) as soon as possible, to explore what arrangements need to be made to ensure access. During the Fall 2020 semester, SAR will be conducting all appointments via ZOOM. If you have a disability, you are encouraged to visit <https://hood.accessiblelearning.com/UTTyler> and fill out the New Student Application. For more information, please visit the SAR webpage at <http://www.uttyler.edu/disabilityservices> or call 903.566.7079.

Student Absence due to Religious Observance

Students who anticipate being absent from class due to a religious observance are requested to inform the instructor of such absences by the second class meeting of the semester.

Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities

If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

Social Security and FERPA Statement

It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number. The electronic transmission of grades (e.g., via e-mail) risks violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act; grades will not be transmitted electronically.

Emergency Exits and Evacuation

Everyone is required to exit the building when a fire alarm goes off. Follow your instructor's directions regarding the appropriate exit. If you require assistance during an evacuation, inform your instructor in the first week of class. Do not re-enter the building unless given permission by University Police, Fire department, or Fire Prevention Services.

Student Standards of Academic Conduct

Disciplinary proceedings may be initiated against any student who engages in scholastic dishonesty, including, but not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts.

- i. "Cheating" includes, but is not limited to:
 - copying from another student's test paper;
 - using, during a test, materials not authorized by the person giving the test;
 - failure to comply with instructions given by the person administering the test;
 - possession during a test of materials which are not authorized by the person giving the test, such as class notes or specifically designed "crib notes". The presence of textbooks constitutes a violation if they have been specifically prohibited by the person administering the test;
 - using, buying, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in whole or part the contents of an unadministered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program;
 - collaborating with or seeking aid from another student during a test or other assignment without authority;
 - discussing the contents of an examination with another student who will take the examination;
 - divulging the contents of an examination, for the purpose of preserving questions for use by another, when the instructors has designated that the examination is not to be removed from the examination room or not to be returned or to be kept by the student;

- substituting for another person, or permitting another person to substitute for oneself to take a course, a test, or any course-related assignment;
 - paying or offering money or other valuable thing to, or coercing another person to obtain an unadministered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program or information about an unadministered test, test key, home solution or computer program;
 - falsifying research data, laboratory reports, and/or other academic work offered for credit;
 - taking, keeping, misplacing, or damaging the property of The University of Texas at Tyler, or of another, if the student knows or reasonably should know that an unfair academic advantage would be gained by such conduct; and
 - misrepresenting facts, including providing false grades or resumes, for the purpose of obtaining an academic or financial benefit or injuring another student academically or financially.
- ii. “Plagiarism” includes, but is not limited to, the appropriation, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another’s work and the submission of it as one’s own academic work offered for credit.
- iii. “Collusion” includes, but is not limited to, the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing academic assignments offered for credit or collaboration with another person to commit a violation of any section of the rules on scholastic dishonesty. iv. All written work that is submitted will be subject to review by plagiarism software.
