Course description: Students are given the opportunity to develop technical proficiency on their instrument, become familiar with the standard repertory, and develop their musicianship. Students meet with the instructor for a 30-minute lesson each week.

Required Materials

- 1) Trumpet and Mouthpiece
- 2) Metronome and Tuner
- 3) Methods books as assigned (Clarke, Arban, Schlossberg, Irons), Etudes, and Solos

Expectations:

- 1) The student is expected to be on time, warmed-up, and prepared for his/her scheduled lesson time and studio class. In case of emergency or illness, contact the instructor as soon as possible.
- 2) Methods, etudes, and solos, which are assigned, will be obtained in a timely manner.
- 3) Sight reading is a skill that is developed in this course.
- 4) The student will attend all brass recitals (student, faculty, guest artists) in addition to other performances
- 5) Students are responsible for communicating clearly and promptly with accompanists and scheduling coaching sessions with applied instructor

Performance Requirements

- 1) Perform on one Student Recital each semester
- 2) Perform in studio class as assigned each semester
- 3) Perform a jury at the end of each semester. Juries are a performance opportunity that should be treated equally with a recital performance. Students are responsible for requesting an accompanist in a timely manner.
- 4) Perform on Evening of Brass, March 7th at 7:30
- 5) Perform on additional studio engagements as announced
