Text: Business Data Communications and Networking by Jerry Fitzgerald, Alan Dennis, and Alexandra Durcikova, 13th (Thirteenth) Edition, Wiley Publishing, ISBN 978-1-119-36883-0.

Catalog Description: Study of problems and limitations associated with interconnecting computers by communication networks. OSI reference model, architecture of circuits, message and packet switching networks, network topology, routing, flow control, capacity assignments, protocols, coding and multiplexing.

Course Description: Data communications refers to the transfer of information over wires that are interconnected to form computer networks. Based on our daily experiences of using mobile devices, connected appliances, and workstations, we can come to the fair conclusion that without the ability to transfer data over communication networks we can do practically nothing! This, in fact, seems to be the view of enterprises as well – without a properly designed and secure network most of the business processes simply cannot operate: access to the Intranet, access to shared resources, access to the Internet, and emails, all require a robust network to be available in the first place. In this course we will study in a systematic manner how data are transferred over computer networks so that we understand the technical and management issues involved in this field which, in turn, will help us design and develop our own computer networks based on the given business application and data requirements. We will be using the Canvas Learning Management System for the coursework – all slides and other material used in class will be posted on Canvas.

Grading: Grading will be based on exams, labs, and homework. There will be two mid-term exams (as per schedule given later). Homework submissions will be electronic – they will need to be uploaded to Canvas and no physical paper submissions will be accepted; also, homework will be due on or before the deadline – late submissions will not be graded. Labs will be assigned on a periodic basis and will need to be completed in the Networking Lab (COB 258) outside of class times. Weights are given below:

First Midterm Exam	20%
Second Midterm Exam	20%
Final Exam	25%
Labs	20%
Homework	15%

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities

If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number.
