Course Materials

1. Text – Governance and Policy in Sport Organizations by Mary Hums and Joanne Maclean
 - a. 4th edition is strongly recommended.
 - i. NOTE: Our bookstore will price match a new copy.
 - b. 3rd edition is acceptance and better than nothing (page references will be off)
2. Canvas - PowerPoint slides, mini video lectures, select articles, assignments, instructions will be posted on Canvas. Assignments will be submitted on Canvas or in class. You are responsible for monitoring announcements and emails online. Use the helpline for technical issues.

SUCCESS TIP: A & B students buy a text for $8-$40 to facilitate their success and learn more since they spent a lot for the course itself—might as well learn more and do well by spending a little more. C-D students handicap their own success by saving a few bucks on book purchase.

Course Learning Modules

Each learning module details objectives specific to that topical area. All fit together to develop students’ knowledge and skills about the overall conceptual space for the approach we are taking to Managing Sports Organizations. New modules will be revealed on a once-a-week basis. Please, let’s learn together!

Course Topics and Suggested Weekly Tasks Outline

You may move at your own pace, but here is the suggested progression through the material...

Grading

Category	Percentage of Total Grade
Response-Based Learning Activity Participation & Contribution	50%
Module Quiz Average (5 quizzes)	50%
	100%

Response-Based Learning Activity Participation and Contribution (50%)

50% of your total course grade will be based on the amount and quality of participation in the learning activities that require your response (often in the discussion board section of Canvas). Regularly featured activities are “Walk in the Shoes of a Sport Manager” and “Share What You Think” about an issue or problem. Activities must be completed by the dates they are assigned, since they often involve interaction with others. No late submissions will be accepted. If you miss a few, do not be worried. There are enough that missing a few will be insignificant to your grade.

What is the purpose of this?

Interacting with your classmates through sharing your experiences and impressions related to the topics is an effective way to relate the coursework to you, and see how its knowledge may be applicable.

What to do?

You are expected to participate in all the learning activities that require responses. Directions vary by activity. Follow the directions specifically.

How long should a post be?

Most often 3-4 well-thought out sentences for each answer/reply is sufficient. Think quality, not quantity.

How are these assessed/graded?

Both how often you participate and the quality of your responses will be assessed. Activities will intermittently assessed, meaning every activity will not be scored. Some will be graded for quality, some for completion, and some not at all, with no announcement prior to the assignment, similar to a work supervisor monitoring your work, whereby managers (hopefully) do not watch and record your every move; they check your work occasionally for quality, walk around to see if you’re on task other times, and at others trust you’re being conscientious and doing what needs to be done. Just as at work, complete each task with high quality and no need to worry about if/how you are being evaluated.

Here’s a general rubric for responses to response-based learning activities scored for quality.

0	1.5	2.5	3
Does not participate in any part of activity OR Response has nothing to do with what was asked	Provides insight that demonstrates little/no understanding of course content Offers no justification (why?) for the opinion/position stated Does not fully complete all parts of response	Provides insight that demonstrates some understanding of course content Offers little or illogical justification (why?) for the opinion/position stated Considers the thoughts of others by simply agreeing or disagreeing Responds completely, but not necessarily clearly or efficiently	Provides insight that demonstrates significant understanding of course content Offers logical justification (why?) for the opinion/position stated Considers and extends the thoughts of other students, not just agree or disagree. Responds completely, clearly (understandable) and efficiently (doesn’t ramble on and on)

SUCCESS TIP: Since there are typically 2-3 per module, if you miss one or two by mistake, don’t sweat it, it will not kill your grade. Both the quantity and quality will be assessed. The 2 lowest scores will be dropped.

SUCCESS TIP: Responding to Others’ Responses

NOTE 1: It is OK and even productive to the learning process to disagree with classmates. It is not OK to be disrespectful when doing so.

NOTE 2: When responding, note that quality responses can often include one the following thoughts:

- 1) I find what Susie said is interesting and why...
- 2) I agree/don’t agree with Jimmy, or I find this counterintuitive, based on prior understanding/ experience. Here is why I think the way I do.
- 3) This might have solved and/or has to do with a problem I heard about in the news currently.
- 4) This reminds me of the experience I had/observed where...the approach is (in)consistent with how the situation played out...Here’s how it might have played out the same/differently if x was followed/ignored.

Module Quizzes (50%)

What is the purpose of this?

5 quizzes will assess how much you can locate, understand and can apply course concepts. Module quizzes cover 3 modules, except for the last quiz which will cover only 2, and include multiple choice, multiple answer, and T/F questions on each of 3 module parts.

What to do?

Hunt for info related to each question, rather than try to recall from memory. Quizzes are more of a scavenger hunt (where you search for specific things in the readings and resources you previously read, and then apply them as an aspiring sport manager) than a traditional quiz/test (where you recall what you've read from memory). They are to help you learn, as much as evaluate what you've learned.

What can I expect?

Quizzes are open book, open note, open Canvas, and you are encouraged to use those resources to do well. They are to be done individually.

How will this be assessed?

Points received divided by points possible. You will have 2 attempts on each quiz, with the highest score being recorded in the gradebook.

You do not have to take 2 attempts. If you are happy with your grade on the first attempt, pat yourself on the back and skip the 2nd attempt if you wish!

You may take a quiz after the due date up to 5 days late, but you will receive a 10% late penalty per day late.

SUCCESS TIP: A-B students take both quiz chances and take their time doing so, using the available resources to help. C-D students think it's a race, take less time, only take it once, and don't use their books, notes, etc.

Class Policies

Academic Dishonesty and/or Impropriety Policy

Please review the university policy and uphold the code of honor. No form of academic misconduct will be tolerated. The University has a strict code for cheating and students should refer to the Student Code of Conduct to understand the consequences. University policy will be followed if a student is caught cheating.

Any student who engages in any form of cheating, including plagiarism, or working together on online quizzes and exams designed to be students' independent work will receive a grade of F in the course. Software now easily detects when students work together and answer similarly on exams, and/or duplicate others writing and passes it off as their own. Please don't put yourself through the embarrassment and the department the hassle of disciplining you for academic dishonesty.

Plagiarism-- to take and pass off as one's own the ideas, writings, etc. of another without giving credit to them via a citation/reference. You do not need to cite the textbook when you write for this course.

Withdrawal Dates

Last day to withdraw from one or more courses is reflected in the Academic Calendar.

Make-up Procedure

If you must miss a quiz, you must make every effort to contact me before the quiz. Failure to do so may result in a zero for that quiz. Make-up quizzes, if allowed, must be taken within a week of the scheduled quiz.

Completing Assignments – Late Policy

- Response-based Learning Activities
 - o No extensions or late credit will be given. No need to ask.
- Module quizzes
 - o You may complete a quiz up to 5 days late for reduced credit. A 10% deduction for each day it is late up to 5 days late. After this, the quiz/assignment will no longer be accepted for any amount of credit. The exception is the final quiz and the last day of class. They cannot be completed late.
- Uh-Oh! Pass
 - o Because sometimes life or technical difficulties happen, you will receive one “Uh-Oh” Pass. This allows you to turn in a quiz one day late with no penalty. To use this pass, you must e-mail Dr. Morgan through Canvas or submit when you turn in your late assignment that you are using your Uh-Oh Pass. Tip: Save for big assignments like a quiz.

Communication

Please utilize Canvas Support for Canvas issues and Dr. Morgan for course content and assignment related questions. Use the Canvas mail app for faster responses and expect a response in 24 hours. Dr. Morgan is easier to reach via Canvas mail than e-mail because Canvas mail is free of spam.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. (the Census Date is noted in the academic calendar) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date (July 7) is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a “W” grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions or exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services

Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
