Course Description:

This introductory graduate educational technology course is for individuals who want a broad practical course in learning how to integrate emerging technologies into elementary and secondary classrooms. Students will take a constructivist approach to understanding educational technology as articulated in the international Educational Technology Standards for Teachers.

Course Information:

This course is designed as an online course. Please allow up to 48 hours for response to an email. Office hours are by appointment and will be held virtually.

Student Learning Outcomes:

The purpose of this course is to help educators expose students to basic computer programming and new technologies in hopes of inspiring students to pursue careers in science, technology, mathematics, and engineering (STEM) fields within a global economy. More specifically and in keeping with the National Education Technology Standards (NETS), part of the International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE) standards, and the Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS), by the end of the course you will better be able to:

- Leverage technology to take an active role in choosing, achieving and demonstrating competency in your learning goals, informed by the learning sciences. (INTASC Standards: 2, 4, 7, 8, 11)
- Critically curate a variety of resources using digital tools to construct knowledge, produce creative artifacts and make meaningful learning experiences for yourself and others (INTASC Standards: 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 11)
- Use a variety of technologies within a design process to identify and solve problems by creating new, useful or imaginative solutions. (INTASC Standards: 1, 2, 6, 11)
- Recognize the rights, responsibilities and opportunities of living, learning and working in an interconnected digital world, and you act and model in ways that are safe, legal and ethical. (INTASC Standards: 2, 3, 6, 9, 10, 11)

- Develop and employ strategies for understanding and solving problems in ways that leverage the power of technological methods to develop and test solutions. (INTASC Standards: 6, 9, 11)
- Communicate clearly and express yourself creatively for a variety of purposes using the platforms, tools, styles, formats and digital media appropriate to your goals. (INTASC Standards: 4, 6, 11)
- Use digital tools to broaden your perspectives and enrich their learning by collaborating with others and working effectively in teams locally and globally. (INTASC Standards: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10, 11)

Evaluation and Grading:

1. Class Participation: In each module, you will have the opportunity to earn points for participating in discussions and answering short assessments. These discussions will be held inside of Canvas and our group Facebook page. Please do not approach this component as simply a bunch of tasks to be completed each week, but an opportunity to truly collaborate and learn from each other.

2. Class Projects: In addition to the participation activities, you will create several projects. These will range in difficulty from simple to more complex and be valued from 10-100 points.

3. Final Exam: A final project will be given.

4. Grading is not based upon a curve.

- A = 90-100% of total points
- B = 80-89% of total points
- C = 70-79% of total points
- D = 60-69% of total points
- F = 59% or below of total points

Required Text, Materials/Supplies, and Related Readings:

There are no required textbooks. There are selected instructor readings provided per module.

Required Materials and Supplies:

Green Screen (This could be any green wall or cloth. Flat or non-shiny is best. However, the green plastic table clothes at a local dollar store would also suffice for this activity). There are also several screens available for student use in the College of Education and Psychology; please make arrangements with the instructor if needed.

Paint: Chroma Key Green, or Behr “Green Apple”, or “Gamma Sector Green”
Cloth: Green Muslin from fabric store

Textbooks: A student of this institution is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from a university-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Course Policies and Guidelines:

Teaching Strategies: Instructional methods for this online course include:

- Lectures, videos, course activities, and projects
- Canvas postings and discussions
- Research and pedagogy regarding best practices in classrooms

Assignment Submission:

For assignments a “page” is defined as:

- 8½” x 11” paper
- Times New Roman or Arial 12-point font
- Double-spaced (unless otherwise directed)
- 1-inch margin on all sides.
- Put page numbers on the top right-hand side.
- Put your name, title of the assignment and date on your paper.
- Upload written assignments on the Canvas Web site under the assignment tab

Papers that do not meet these specifications will not be accepted. With respect to format and style, your paper should conform to the 6th edition APA Manual.

Late Work: Assignments and projects are expected to be handed in on time. Assignments are expected to be dropped in the assignment box on Canvas. You may turn in your assignment early. Late assignments are not accepted unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor. Assignments for each lesson are due at the closing date of each lesson. Assignment dates are posted in Canvas.

Attendance: The attendance policy recommended by the University is followed in this course. Course objectives and performance outcomes cannot be met unless you participate in class activities. If you are absent for an extended period of time, you should make arrangements to explore options such as retaking the course or taking an incomplete grade. If you miss more than two assignments, you will need to make an appointment with the instructor for a possible Disposition Conference. If you are going to be absent for an exam, you must contact the instructor on or before the scheduled time the exam is to be given.

Technology:

Hardware:

Desktop or Laptop computer with Internet access. This may be a Windows or MAC based computer; however, many of the applications will require downloads and tutorials specific to the device.

Note: If your Internet connection is down, it is your responsibility to seek access at a venue such as in the UTT computer lab or a public library to complete and submit your work on time.

A camera, microphone, and sound.

Software:

A current operating system (Microsoft or Apple) • A web browser (e.g., Chrome, Safari, Firefox, etc.). Note: Google Chrome is not compatible with JAVA. If your browser is not working with a particular software, try an alternative one (e.g. IE, Firefox).

Access to Canvas and Patriot Mail

Microsoft Office (Available at no charge to students at

<https://www.utt Tyler.edu/it/office365/proplus.php>

Also, standard plug-ins such as:

Java

QuickTime

Adobe Reader or another PDF reader such as Preview on the Mac

Other software as noted in each module

Read chapters assigned from the instructor in each module.

You are responsible for this information on tests as well as during class participation.

Criteria for all assignments will be posted online unless otherwise notified by the instructor.

Canvas– You are responsible for enrolling on Canvas

(<http://www.Canvas.utt Tyler.edu/>) prior to the second day and monitoring the course Canvas site regularly for course information. Assignments will be turned in through the assignment tab in Canvas.

Turn it In is a tool that will be used to check a document for plagiarism. The tool provides feedback as to whether or not the text in a document is a close match with other documents on the Internet, in journal databases, and submitted to Canvas. If a student is caught plagiarizing, a grade of zero will be given as well as a disposition for cheating.

Dispositions - All students in the UT Tyler Teacher Preparation Program must adhere to the professional behaviors outlined in the UT Tyler School of Education Dispositions.
