Term Fall 2024

Last day to withdraw from this course: November 4, 2024

Course Description

This course employs an interdisciplinary approach to examine how educational leaders can determine, promote, support, and achieve successful, systematic school improvement through the use of data and meaningful feedback, and the implementation of systems to monitor teaching and student learning. Furthermore, the course explores the skills needed to engage in critical conversations and conflict resolution while enacting change and creating a culture of continuous improvement.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Identify, understand, and apply strategies that will improve communication and increase a productive work environment. (Program Goal: a, e)
2. Identify and evaluate elements of crucial conversations leading to effective communication and used to diffuse difficult situations. (Program Goal: d)
3. Assess and evaluate organizational frames from the perspective of communication and collaboration. (Program Goals: b, c)
4. Recognize causative factors leading to campus culture. (Program Goals: a, c, d, e)

Required Texts

Bolman, L. G., & Deal, T. E. (2017). Reframing organizations: Artistry, choice, and leadership (6th ed.). John Wiley & Sons.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS

Graded Course Requirements

- Discussion Boards – Discussion boards encourage students to communicate and explore open-ended prompts that require, evaluation, and reflection. Students will respond to a given prompt and provide peer feedback.
- Reflections – Reflections build student ownership in their learning. Reflections should build a bridge between course concepts, personal goals, and future learning. Student will develop a personal connection based on recent learning.
- Team Scenarios – Small group activities that engage students in multiple levels of critical thinking. These require analysis, collaboration, and the development of a final artifact that demonstrates understanding.
- Reading Quizzes – Quizzes test a student’s understanding of covered course content.

Full descriptions of each assignment will be provided within the course module.

COURSE POLICIES

All assignments are expected to be completed to the best ability of the student and adhere to the stated assignment criteria.

All assignments must be submitted by date listed on the assignment schedule. No late work will be accepted.

Participation and your commitment to your learning is critical to your success in any course. Your timely participation in the class discussion and group assignments is a substantial part of your grade in this course. The due date listed in Canvas is for your first post while your peer responses will be due before the next module opens. This structure will ensure we can engage in meaningful conversations about instructional supervision. Please plan accordingly; late participation will not be accepted.

Communication

To contact me via email, you may use the Canvas email. Click on the Inbox on the left side of the Canvas main menu. Through Canvas, you may send a text email or a video message. You may also email me at fkaiser@uttyler.edu. Please note that this is not a Patriots email address.

My preferred method of communication is email; I am not always able to answer your phone calls.

Written Assignments and Quizzes

Some of the assignments in this course require collaboration with other students; your participation as documented on Canvas will count towards the Class Discussion grade.

All other written assignments as well as all quizzes are individual assignments. Students may not collaborate on the individual assignments. Unauthorized collaboration is considered cheating and will be handled according to University Policies and the Students Standards of Academic Conduct.
