EDLR 5370 Practicum in Principalship I
Spring 2025

Instructor Information

Kathy Ray, Ed.D.

Phone: Cell (254) 592-9480

E-mail: kathyray@uttyler.edu

Course Description:

A minimum of 120 clock hours of practical experience as a school administrator conducting an applied research study on a critical issue in educational leadership. The principal practicum provides practical application of knowledge and skills in educational leadership. This practicum is an extension of EDLR 5313 with a formal disciplined inquiry, action research project, into a campus-based issue. In addition, EDLR 5370 provides practical application experiences of knowledge through Blocks II and III.

Student Learning Outcomes & Assessments:

Upon completing this course, students will be able to demonstrate mastery in the following areas:

Students will be encouraged to take ownership of their own learning through critical and reflective thinking regarding the roles and responsibilities of effective principals. Students will explore educational issues, problem-solve and apply knowledge learned through a systematic examination of critical issues in educational leadership and a formal inquiry-based approach.

EDLR 5370 is an integral component of the Educational Leadership Program. Student Learning Outcomes for EDLR 5370 are derived from the Student Learning Outcomes for the Educational Leadership Program. These outcomes are infused into the internship experience and assessed in the TExES exam required for all students who are awarded a Texas Principal's Certificate.

Evaluation and Grading

Course Grading:

All course assignments for EDLR 5370 must be completed to earn a grade of "A". In the event any course assignment is not finished or does not meet the graduate standards by the end of the semester, the student will earn a grade commensurate with the level and amount of work submitted.

Incomplete Grade Policy:

If a student, because of extenuating circumstances, is unable to complete all of the requirements for a course by the end of the semester, then the student may request an Incomplete (I) for the course. The "I" may be assigned in lieu of a grade only when all of the following conditions are met: (a) the student has been making satisfactory progress in the course; (b) the student is unable to complete all course work or final exam due to unusual circumstances that are beyond personal control and are acceptable to the instructor; and (c) the student presents these reasons prior to the time that the final grade roster is due. The semester credit hours for an Incomplete will not be used to calculate the grade point average for a student.

The student requesting an Incomplete grade is to submit a written request, to the course instructor, detailing the assignments needing to be completed, the original due dates of the respective missing assignments and the date by which the work will be completed. The time limit established must not exceed one year. Should the student fail to complete all of the work for the course within the designated due dates, then the instructor may assign zeros to the unfinished work, compute the course average for the student, and assign the appropriate grade. If a grade has not been assigned within one year, then the Incomplete will be changed to an F.

University policy dictates that graduate students have one year to complete the coursework before an "F" is assigned. In addition, EDLR students may not proceed to the next Block of classes until the incomplete work has been accepted.

University Withdrawal Dates:

Last day to withdraw to receive 100% refund for partial withdrawals is on or before the Census Date for classes which is Monday, January 27, 2025.

Last day to withdraw to receive a W or Q is Monday, March 31, 2025.

Artificial Intelligence Statement for Course Syllabi

UT Tyler is committed to exploring and using artificial intelligence (AI) tools as appropriate for the discipline and task undertaken. We encourage discussing AI tools' ethical, societal, philosophical, and disciplinary implications. All uses of AI should be acknowledged as this aligns with our commitment to honor and integrity, as noted in UT Tyler's Honor Code. Faculty and students must not use protected information, data, or copyrighted materials when using any AI tool. Additionally, users should be aware that AI tools rely on predictive models to generate content that may appear correct but is sometimes shown to be incomplete, inaccurate, taken without attribution from other sources, and/or biased. Consequently, an AI tool should not be considered a substitute for traditional approaches to research. You are ultimately responsible for the quality and content of the information you submit. Misusing AI tools that violate the guidelines specified for this course (see below) is considered a breach of academic integrity. The student will be subject to disciplinary actions as outlined in UT Tyler's Academic Integrity Policy.

For this course:

AI is not permitted in this course at all.

To best support your learning, you must complete all graded assignments by yourself to assist in your learning. This exclusion of other resources to help complete assignments includes artificial intelligence (AI). Refrain from using AI tools to generate any course context (e.g., text, video, audio, images, code, etc.) for an assignment or classroom assignment.

This document was adapted from AI Syllabus information from Carnegie Mellon University, Stanford University, The University of Texas at Austin, and The University of Texas at San Antonio. This document was edited for grammar using Grammarly, an AI tool for writing.

Teaching Strategies:

EDLR 5370 utilizes 100% online instruction through UT Canvas. The instructor uses lecture module format and a constructivist learning experience in an electronic environment. Since the class is exclusively online, the instructor will serve as a facilitator of knowledge and skills for the successful completion of the practicum experience.

Related Field Experiences:

This course is an application of EDLR 5313 on the local campus through research data collection, analysis, and reporting of data in the Action Research Project.

Text Statement:

A student of this institution is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from a university-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Scholar Works:

There is an opportunity to add your paper to the UT Tyler's institutional repository: Scholar Works:

You agree to have your paper (or, action research paper) included in Scholar Works, UT Tyler's institutional repository. As the author, you hold all copyright control over your work, and can opt-out of adding your paper to Scholar Works by notifying your professor.

Adding your paper to UT Tyler's institutional repository, Scholar Works, is an opportunity to showcase your scholarship as a student to researchers worldwide. This not only seeks to confirm your consent for submitting your paper to Scholar Works for online publication. You, the author, still hold all copyright control over your work. If you prefer not to have your paper added, you must notify your professor.

As part of this course, your faculty may submit your paper to Scholar Works at UT Tyler on your behalf. Scholar Works at UT Tyler digitally preserves and provides worldwide access to the scholarship and artistic output of the UT Tyler community. As the author, you still retain the copyright to your paper and are only granting UT Tyler the non-exclusive right to publish your paper in Scholar Works.

Course Policies:

Expectations for individual and group responsible contributions are the same as you would expect for your students. As a professional educator, therefore, be polite and respectful of others; be attentive to timelines and assignments requirements; read and listen carefully; and think critically. There are no provisions for making-up quizzes or assignments.

Student Travel Policy:

Since coursework for EDLR online classes can be attended to from any location with internet access, students are responsible for meeting class responsibilities regardless of travel choices. Travel during the scheduled semester is a student choice, and no provisions will be made to excuse students from published assignments or alter course assignment schedules.

Criminal History Acknowledgement:

As required by Texas HB1508, applicants need to be aware of the following.

1. In order to receive a principal certification, you must pass a criminal history background check.
2. If you have been convicted of an offense that is considered not appropriate for a principal, you could be ineligible to earn this certification from the state of Texas.
3. You have a right to request a criminal history evaluation letter from the Texas Education Agency. The Texas Education Agency currently charges a $50 fee for this criminal history evaluation.
