TEACHING STRATEGIES

The course will be hybrid in nature, meaning that it will meet partially face-to-face as well as online. The course consists of lecture and didactic learning methods, small group discussions, and in-class assignments; coupled with experiential learning and practical application. Canvas will house our online content and I will communicate both through canvas and via email. It is critical to your success that you fully engage in your online modules. The class will consist of a collaborative learning community in which all participants share responsibility for the learning process. The instructor will facilitate learning by guiding students to sources of knowledge and promoting independent development and discovery of new knowledge. Online learning requires participation and leadership from each student. Lectures, videos, assigned readings, and online activities will provide a basis for discussion. Academic integrity is expected from each student, and plagiarism from any source will not be tolerated. The course is set up in 16 weekly learning units that equate to approximately 6 hours of classwork (lectures, activities, homework, readings) per week.

Canvas (<https://www.utt Tyler.edu/canvas/>)

Canvas will serve as the overall structure and launching pad for all our activities in this course. In Canvas, you will find announcements, assignments, course schedule, discussion boards, links to outside activities and so on. Within each module folder, the activities necessary to successfully complete that module are described in great detail. It is students' responsibility to examine each module and get in touch with the instructor immediately if they are not clear about the requirements prior to assignment due dates.

COURSE POLICIES

INFORMED CONSENT STATEMENT

Faculty members are dedicated to the educational, personal, and professional growth and development of our students. Faculty are in a unique position as both instructors who assess students' academic skills and members of the counseling profession with an ethical obligation to the profession. In both of these roles, it is the faculty's responsibility to evaluate student competencies within the realm of professional counseling and to address any concerns regarding students' professional competence. As such, please be aware of the following information regarding this course:

- The counseling profession encourages that counselors fully integrate their own personal attributes and identity, as well as their strengths and weaknesses, into therapeutic processes. Therefore, self-awareness is critical because this knowledge relates to being an effective therapist.
- There will be an emphasis in many courses on self-awareness/exploration, as well as giving feedback to peers. Although uncomfortable at times, we encourage students to be open to self-exploration, since we frequently ask clients to do so.
- At times, class may include experiential and self-awareness exercises. It is important to distinguish between sharing one's emotional reactions to such experiential class activities and revealing information about one's personal history. Self-disclosure of personal history is not required in order to successfully pass any course; however, students may be expected to share their reactions to experiential activities.
- Self-disclosures will not be used as a basis for grading in any course. However, should a student disclose information indicating impairment or the potential for harm to clients, the faculty member may take appropriate action in accordance with the ACA Code of Ethics (2005).
- Students often experience personal growth as they progress through the program. However, the courses are not meant to be a means of personal therapy. The focus in classes is on self-awareness and the enhancement and growth of necessary counselor skills.
- Please be aware that, although all instructors strive to create a safe environment for any personal disclosures, we cannot guarantee that other students will maintain the confidentiality of any such disclosures that are made.
- It is each student's responsibility to determine an appropriate level of self-disclosure (i.e. the content and depth of personal information that you share) in experiential learning activities.

PROFESSIONAL DISPOSITIONS

Professional disposition is an integral component of the course. The systematic assessment of students is required by CACREP (2016) Section 4.G.; 4.H. and ACA Code of Ethics (2014) Section F.9: F.9.a; F.9.b. The assessment is completed by the instructor based on the criteria in the table below. The Professional Dispositions component is not calculated in the final grade; however, the assessment is (1) part of the CMHC Committee's systematic student review and (2) will be included in the student's academic file.

PROFESSIONALISM STATEMENT

The counseling program at UT Tyler leads directly to certification, licensure, and professional practice in the field of counseling. All students are required to know and adhere to their respective professional associations (i.e., ACA Code of Ethics, 2014). Ethical violations may result in failure of the course and possibly dismissal from the program.

COURSE ENGAGEMENT

Due to the online nature of this course, it is essential that you remain acutely aware of the due dates for assignments and modules. All assignments and discussion board posts are due by 11:59 pm Saturday. I understand that this "due date" may not be ideal for everyone, but I wanted to give you the full week to complete your assignments and allow those of you who work full time to have the option to complete the assignments during the week or on the weekend. You have the personal choice to submit the assignments or complete the modules anytime throughout the week. Because of this flexibility, late assignments or late completion of modules will not be accepted unless there are extenuating circumstances and permission is given by the instructor PRIOR to the due date.

The instructor will do her best to attend to all questions submitted via email (jholm@uttyler.edu) in a timely manner but anything received after 5:00 pm on the Friday before an assignment is due may not be responded to in time. Because of this, I ask that you please be proactive in starting your assignments.

LATE WORK

All assignments are due according to the timeline established by the syllabus, unless otherwise noted by the instructor. Late submissions will not be accepted.

DIVERSITY STATEMENT

Students are expected to be sensitive to individual and multicultural differences and to treat one another with respect during their experience in this course. Sensitivity to gender/race/ethnicity/ability/sexuality is expected and disrespectful language and/or behavior will not be tolerated. The American Counseling Association has explicit policies, standards, and ethical guidelines regarding diversity issues. In this class, you will be expected to reflect the standards and ethics of the counseling profession, especially in the area of diversity. Any use of written or verbal language should be consistent with the respect and tolerance that are the cornerstone of the counseling profession and should reflect the ACA Human Rights Committee's 1987 statement on tolerance, which states: In order to guarantee that each individual is free to pursue their potential, each member of ACA is charged to (a) engage in ongoing examination of his/her own attitudes, feelings, stereotypic views, perceptions and behaviors that might have prejudicial or limiting impact on others; (b) contribute to an increased sensitivity on the part of other individuals, groups or institutions to the barriers to opportunity imposed by discrimination; (c) advocate equal rights for all individuals through concerted personal, professional, and political activity.

COURSE FEEDBACK AND EVALUATION

Your constructive assessment of this course plays an indispensable role in shaping education at University of Texas at Tyler. Upon completing the course, please take time to fill out the online course evaluation.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

Active Participation (215 Points Total): Due to the online format of this course, students will engage in a variety of Canvas-based activities to assess comprehension and engagement. These points will be earned throughout the duration of the course. Weekly “Modules” are available in Canvas. Active participation is necessary for the course objectives to be met. Your participation is an integral part of this experience. You are required to post thoughtful responses to your online module assignments on the Discussion Board and to respond in an additive, thoughtful manner to at least two other students’ postings for each discussion board. I encourage you post comprehensive and honest responses that are more than just commentary regarding someone else’s thoughts. You must offer additional insight, questions, or thoughts to ponder in order to get full credit. Anyone who posts insensitive, hurtful, unethical, or inappropriate responses will lose all points associated with that module. The purpose of these discussions and peer responses is to align with small group discussions that would occur within the classroom. This will provide alternate viewpoints that will be essential when working with your future clients. These modules may also contain quizzes, video links, and personal engagement projects.

CACREP Standards Assessed: 2.F.4.a, 2.F.4.b., 2.F.4.c., 2.F.4.d., 2.F.4.e., 2.F.4. f., 2.F.4. g., 2.F.4.h, 2.F.4.i, 2.F.4.j.

Career Theory Reflection (100 points): Students will identify a career theory that they think most closely aligns with their counseling approach. The reflection should be approximately 2-3 pages (double-spaced). Students will select one theory and will describe their own career development through the lens of those theories. Students will connect the key concepts of the theory to their personal career development or current career decision making process. Students should use specific examples from their own personal experience. Please see Appendix A for assignment rubric.

Career Portfolio (350 points): This assignment includes multiple components that will be completed at various times throughout the semester (inside and outside of class time). It is essential that students be aware of these components and turn them in by the designated due date. Further guidelines for the individual assignments will be given throughout the semester.

- a.) The first component of your career portfolio will be a career genogram. I encourage you to consider what information may be important if you were working with a client looking to make a decision regarding their education or career. You are welcome to include (but are not limited to): educational level, jobs, careers, and hobbies. You must include at least two generations of your immediate family (ex. parents, grandparents) and can choose how much of extended family to include (aunts, uncles, cousins...). You are free to be as creative as you would like and may use either a computer program to make the genogram or create it and take a picture to upload. You will need to include a summarizing paragraph. Please also bring a copy to class.
- b.) The second component of your career portfolio will be a career timeline. I encourage you to consider what information may be important if you were working with a client looking to make a decision regarding their education or career. You will include details from childhood and continue through the disengagement (retirement) stage. As you think about your childhood, you may think about hobbies, interests, part-time jobs, or dreams you had for your career when you "grew up". As you move through your life, please remember that components of your personal life may play a significant role on your career development (i.e. when you have children may significantly impact your decision to return to school or make a career change). You are free to be as creative as you would like and may use either a computer program to make the timeline or create it and take a picture to upload. You will need to include a summarizing paragraph. Please also bring a copy to class.

- c.) Students will complete a career application packet which includes the following steps: Identify one counseling related job posting (through the internet, websites, etc.) to which they would like to apply after graduation. The job should be counseling related and fit with the student's career goals.

Students will complete a cover letter and resume for a self-identified job posting. Students will complete a rough draft and final version of this based on peer feedback. Students will provide feedback to at least two peers on their resumes and cover letters. Please bring two copies of your first draft to class.

Thus, this career portfolio (185 points) includes the following components:

- a) Career timeline (40 points)
- b) Career genogram (40 points)
- c) Application Packet (1st and final drafts)
 - a. One job posting or listing (5 points, turned in with the first draft)
 - b. A cover letter for the identified job (1st draft: 10 final draft: 40)
 - c. An updated resume (or CV; 1st draft: 10 final draft: 40)

Please see Appendix C for grading guidelines and the Course Schedule for Due Dates.

Career Success Coach Meeting (150 points): Students will set up a meeting with the College of Education and Psychology's Career Success Coach, Pamela Rodriguez through handshake (<https://www.uttyler.edu/academics/success-services/career-success/career-success-coach-appointments/index.php>) to engage in the taking, and processing, of the Strong Interest Inventory and the Focus 2 Assessments. Students will meet with the Career Coach, take the assessments, then have a follow up meeting to process the assessments. I have placed suggested timelines for reaching out and completion of the assessments on the calendar but it is the student's responsibility to complete these in a timely manner. Please note that Ms. Rodriguez has other students she assists and will also not be available during spring break. It is my strong preference that you complete these meetings in person. If you would like to request an exception to complete them online, please email me.

Students will turn in a copy of the assessment results along with a 3 page reflection. The reflection will include: (a) details of your meeting, (b) personal and professional reactions to the experience of meeting with the career success coach, and (c) the meaning personally pulled from the outcomes of the two assessments.

Career Counseling Role Play Session (200 points): Students will conduct and record one 50 minute career counseling session with a volunteer client. The volunteer may be a peer, friend, neighbor, colleague, etc. The volunteer should be made aware that this is for training purposes only. Within the session, students will: (a) discuss at least one career-related concern, (b) administer and interpret one career assessment, and (c) develop a goal and plan with the client. Students will video record the session, ensuring both counselor and client are able to be seen and heard during session, and a reflection form must be completed (see Appendix B). Basic counseling skills are necessary but your developmental level will be taken into consideration. Videos must be uploaded to studio on canvas for submission but I would suggest recording through a different platform to avoid live recording errors with studio. If you need additional assistance with studio/Canvas, please use their 24/7 support.

CACREP Standards Assessed: 2.F.4.a, 2.F.4.b., 2.F.4.d., 2.F.4.e., 2.F.4.h, 2.F.4.i.

Final Exam (150 Points): You will have 90 minutes to complete the comprehensive final exam on Canvas. The exam will consist of 40-50-questions (multiple choice, T/F) and will be a cumulative in nature. The exams will contain questions modeled after those you might see on the licensure exams covering Career Counseling and Assessment. The final in this online course will be proctored using ProctorU. CACREP Standards Assessed: 2.F.4.a., 2.F.4.h., 2.F.4.i.

GRADE REPLACEMENT/FORGIVENESS AND CENSUS DATE POLICIES

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. (For Fall, the Census Date is Sept. 12.) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar. Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through.

FINANCIAL AID STATE-MANDATED COURSE DROP POLICY

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date). Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
