Course Policies

Attendance: While it is strongly recommended that you do not miss any classes, you are permitted to miss one class (2.5 hours) with no penalty. If you are going to miss a class, it is expected that you will notify the professor ahead of time. With a second absence you will receive a one-letter grade deduction from your final grade in the course (e.g., A → B) unless you write a letter to the instructor that explains extenuating circumstances for both absences. With your letter you should include documentation that substantiates your extenuating circumstance. The instructor will then decide if both the first and the second absences are excusable. Each subsequent absence will result in the drop of a letter grade.

Class Punctuality: Students are expected to attend classes on time. Late behavior in excess of one class will result in a loss of participation points for each incident. In addition to a loss of participation points, students who are consistently late and miss a significant amount of class time may be assessed a course a course absence (see attendance heading above).

Zoom Professional Behaviors: Students should attend online zoom synchronous classes in the same manner that they would attend in-person classes. Students should be professionally dressed and sitting in an appropriate position for learning. Students must keep their video cameras on for the entirety of class. Students are not permitted to be engaging in other activities while attending class (e.g., driving a car, working a job, attending an appointment, etc.). Students will need to find a quiet and private location in which to attend class. It is also essential that students are able to secure a good internet connection.

Late Policy: Assignments are due when class begins on the assigned date. Assignments submitted after class begins will be considered late. Late assignments will be reduced by 10% (one letter grade) for each day the assignment is submitted late. After three days past the due date, late assignments will no longer be accepted, and the student will receive a zero for the assignment.

Use of Technology: Cell phones are to be turned off or put in silent mode during class. Cell phones should not be visible during class, so please keep them in your pants, purse, backpack, etc. If you are experiencing an emergency or extenuating circumstance where you need to check your phone during class, please inform me of this before class begins. Students who choose to use a laptop computer should only do so for taking notes. Students who use laptop computers are prohibited from (a) surfing the internet, (b) checking email, and (c) working on other assignments during class. If the instructor becomes aware of a student using their laptop for any reason other than taking notes, he may ask that student to cease bringing their computer into the classroom.

Communication Policy: University policy requires that all e-mail correspondence between students and instructor be done via the Patriot account. Check your Patriot E-Mail frequently. Announcements pertaining to class or departmental business will be sent to the student's Patriot account. Typically, I will be able to respond to your emails within 24 hours Monday – Thursday. Note; make sure that you do not send emails to rmoate@patriots.uttyler.edu, as I will not receive these messages.

Diversity Statement: Students are expected to be sensitive to individual and cultural differences and to treat one another with respect during their experience in this course. Sensitivity to gender, race, ethnicity, ability, and sexuality is expected and disrespectful language and/or behavior will not be tolerated.

The American Counseling Association has explicit policies, standards, and ethical guidelines regarding diversity issues. In this class, you will be expected to reflect the standards and ethics of the counseling profession, especially in the area of diversity. Any use of written or verbal language should be consistent with the respect and tolerance that are the cornerstone of the counseling profession and should reflect the ACA Human Rights Committee's 1987 statement on tolerance, which states:

In order to guarantee that each individual is free to pursue his/her potential, each member of ACA is charged to (a) engage in ongoing examination of his/her own attitudes, feelings, stereotypic views, perceptions and behaviors that might have prejudicial or limiting impact on others; (b) contribute to an increased sensitivity on the part of other individuals, groups or institutions to the barriers to opportunity imposed by discrimination; (c) advocate equal rights for all individuals through concerted personal, professional, and political activity.

Informed Consent Statement: Faculty members are dedicated to the educational, personal, and professional growth and development of our students. Faculty are in a unique position as both instructors who assess students' academic skills and members of the counseling profession with an ethical obligation to the profession. In both of these roles, it is the faculty's responsibility to evaluate student competencies within the realm of professional counseling and to address any concerns regarding students' professional competence. As such, please be aware of the following information regarding this course:

- The counseling profession encourages that counselors fully integrate their own personal attributes and identity, as well as their strengths and weaknesses, into therapeutic processes. Therefore, self-awareness is critical because this knowledge relates to being an effective therapist.
- There will be an emphasis in many courses on self-awareness/exploration, as well as giving feedback to peers. Although uncomfortable at times, we encourage students to be open to self-exploration, since we frequently ask clients to do so.
- At times, class may include experiential and self-awareness exercises. It is important to distinguish between sharing one's emotional reactions to such experiential class activities and revealing information about one's personal history. Self-disclosure of personal history is not required in order to successfully pass any course; however, students may be expected to share their reactions to experiential activities.
- Self-disclosures will not be used as a basis for grading in any course. However, should a student disclose information indicating impairment or the potential for harm to clients, the faculty member may take appropriate action in accordance with the ACA Code of Ethics (2014).
- Students often experience personal growth as they progress through the program. However, the courses are not meant to be a means of personal therapy. The focus in classes is on self-awareness and the enhancement and growth of necessary counselor skills.
- Please be aware that, although all instructors strive to create a safe environment for any personal disclosures, we cannot guarantee that other students will maintain the confidentiality of any such disclosures that are made.
- It is each student's responsibility to determine an appropriate level of self-disclosure (i.e. the content and depth of personal information that you share) in experiential learning activities.

You will be graded on this assignment based on the accuracy and quality of your responses on the Counseling Skills Evaluation forms. For this assignment you will submit the following items (2.F.5.f.; 2.F.5.g.):

You should single space responses from the client and/or counselor and use double space to delineate changes in the speaker. Below is an example that you should use as a template for your transcription (2.F.5.f.; 2.F.5.g.).

Counselor: It seems like you've really been under a lot of stress recently. Um, it seems, um, that you have a lot going on at work, and that when you come up from work it's hard for you to decompress.

Client: Yea, I think that's true. It's hard for me to unwind, because I feel like as soon as I get home my kids and spouse are ready for me to pay attention to them, and that's hard.

Counselor: It sounds like you feel like you want a break, or some time for yourself to catch your breath.

Client: I sure do; but, it's not realistic that'll ever happen.

After you have completed the written transcription of the counseling session you will complete a 2-3 page reflection paper in APA format that addresses the following questions (2.F.5.f.; 2.F.5.g.):

- Conceptualize your session with the client. Explain what you understood as the counselor to be going on cognitively, emotionally, or spiritually for your client from their perspective.
- Describe what you perceived that you did well during this session and areas that you know that you need to work on.
- Describe difficulties and/or challenges that came up for you during the session.

Tape #3: (25 points) – You will submit a video recorded 20-minute counseling session via CANVAS with a completed Counseling Skills Evaluation form (note: hard copy submitted in class). You are allowed to ask one question during your twenty-minute session. Each subsequent question beyond the first question will result in you losing -0.5 points off of your grade for the assignment (e.g., If you ask three questions total, you will lose -1.0 points). You will be graded on how successfully you are able to incorporate and demonstrate basic counseling skills that you have been presented (2.F.5.f.; 2.F.5.g.).

Tape #4: Final Examination (210 points) – You will submit a video recorded 25-minute counseling session via CANVAS with a completed Counseling Skills Evaluation form. Each subsequent question beyond the second question will result in you losing -0.5 points off of your grade for the assignment (e.g., If you ask four questions total, you will lose -1.0 points).

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
