Course Description

This course includes the study of the psychology of disruptive behavior, including definitions, characteristics, identification, and academic and social interventions for managing behavior in the classroom. Consideration is given to the principles of applied behavior analysis and other major approaches for managing and changing behavior and preventing inappropriate behaviors in the classroom.

Required Text

Kern, L., George, M. P., & Weist, M. D. (2015). Supporting students with emotional and behavioral problems: Prevention and intervention strategies. Brookes.

Recommended Text

Zolkoski, S. M., Lewis Chiu, C., & Lusk, M. E. (2023). Motivated to learn: Decreasing challenging student behaviors and increasing academic engagement. Solution Tree.

Other readings as assigned.

Students will access class notes, assignments, grades and course information through Canvas. Any changes made to the course schedule, schedule of assignments, or any special assignments will be posted to Canvas. Students are expected to regularly access Canvas to check for updates, announcements, and for any handouts to be brought to class.

NOTE: A student of this institution is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from a university-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Evaluation and Grading

Students will be assessed according to the stated objectives in this syllabus including written work, discussions, and projects.

Summary of Course Assignments:	Maximum Points
Zoom Conferences	50 points
Padlet Assignments	20 points
Edpuzzle	30 points
Putting it All Together	20 points
Assignments Listed in Canvas	300 points
Functional Behavior Assessment	100 points
Mental Health Modules	110 points
Research Pool Activities	30 points

Detailed assignments will be found in Canvas.

Grading is based on your accumulated score as a percent of the total cumulative score available. You can keep track of your grades via Canvas. Turnaround time for grading is one week. It is my policy not to discuss grades via email. If you need to discuss grade issues, please schedule a time you can visit with me in my office.

Grading Rubric:

A (90%)	B (80%)	C (70%)	D (60%)	F (less than 60%)
---------	---------	---------	---------	-------------------

The last day to withdraw from courses is Friday, July 7th.

Additional Information

You will enroll in the following:

- a) Research Pool Requirement: Students enrolled in specified SOE courses must fulfill a research pool requirement each semester. The research requirement for these courses can be satisfied in one of two ways. First, students can satisfy the research pool requirement by volunteering to participate in approved research studies offered by the School of Education (3 credits for 30 points and up to 10 additional points for 1 more credit [total 4 credits]). Alternatively, students can satisfy the research pool requirement by completing alternative assignments equal in time and effort to the research opportunities.

Communication

To contact me via email, you may use the Canvas email. You may also email me at szolkoski@uttyler.edu. Please note this is not a Patriots email address. I will respond to your emails as quickly as possible; my priority is to be supportive of your work to ensure your success. I work to reply to emails within 24 hours. While I will try to respond to emails over the weekend as promptly as possible, emails sent over the weekend might not be read until Monday morning. My preferred method of communication is email.

Teaching Strategies

It is expected that this class will function in a graduate seminar format. While the instructor will provide some lecture, emphasis will be on in-class discussion, presentation, assignments, and case study analysis that contributes to class discussions. The following instructional strategies will be employed during this class:

- Lecture, multimedia, and simulations
- Demonstration and case studies
- Written assignments
- Examinations

Course Policies and Guidelines

1) Assignment Submission:

For written assignments a “page” is defined as:

- 8½” x 11” paper
- Times New Roman or Arial 12-point font
- Double-spaced (unless otherwise directed)
- 1-inch margin on all sides.
- Put page numbers on the top right-hand side.
- Put the title of the assignment, centered at the top of your paper.
- For all assignments submitted in Canvas, your name, date, class number, or any other information should NOT be included.
- Upload written assignments on the Canvas website under the assignment tab.

- a) Criteria for all assignments will be available in class and posted online unless otherwise notified by the instructor.

Canvas. Students will access class notes, assignments, grades, and course information through Canvas. Any changes to the course schedule, schedule of assignments, or any special assignments will be posted on Canvas. Students are expected to regularly check Canvas for updates and to download any class handouts.

- b) Late work: It is expected that assignments and projects be submitted on time. An assignment will be considered late if it is not turned in the day it is due. You may turn in your assignment early. Late assignments are not accepted unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor. Assignments and due dates are posted in Canvas.

- c) Plagiarism. Students need to use their own words when completing all assignments. A zero will be given for any assignment that is detected as being plagiarized. Students are subjected to a disposition or a failing grade in the course.

Unicheck is a tool that will be used to check a document for plagiarism. The tool provides feedback as to whether or not the text in a document is a close match with other documents on the Internet, in journal databases, and submitted to Canvas. If a student is caught plagiarizing, a grade of zero will be given as well as a disposition for cheating. Once you submit an assignment, you will get a report where you can see plagiarism detection and grammatical errors.

- 2) Zoom etiquette. During any zoom sessions, you will need to be on time and have your video on. You will need to be an active participant in the class by listening (focused on class content and not on other things) and answering questions. Please make sure you are in a quiet area. You will need to make sure you are in an area where you have a stable internet connection. Class participation points will be deducted for not following zoom etiquette.
 - Zoom Conference Expectations:
 - Be on time for class.
 - Your video should be on.
 - Be in a quiet location that is free from distraction. Our zoom class should be treated like you are in person. It will help to avoid being in a room with other people.
 - Be an active participant and active listener.
- 3) You are responsible for all information given in class, online, and in the syllabus.
- 4) Person First Language. Our language reflects our attitudes. Always refer to persons with disabilities with respect. Degrading terminology will not be tolerated. In this class we will strive to always use “people first” language. “People First” language always refers to the person first and not as a label or a category. For example, refer to “a student with autism” and not “an autistic”.
- 5) Safe Zone. The professor considers this classroom to be a place where you will be treated with respect as a human being - regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, national origin, religious affiliation, sexual orientation, political beliefs, age, or ability. Additionally, diversity of thought is appreciated and encouraged, provided you can agree to disagree. It is the professor's expectation that ALL students consider the classroom a safe environment.
- 6) Dispositions. All students in the UT Tyler Teacher Preparation Program must adhere to the professional behaviors outlined in the U.T. Tyler School of Education Dispositions. Information on dispositions can be found under the attachments of the Course Information Page.

According to The University of Texas at Tyler Office of the President, UT Tyler is committed to student success by providing a uniquely balanced student experience in an environment of innovative teaching shaped to serve and advance the educational, economic, technological, and public interests of East Texas and beyond. We aspire to be the primary educational and economic driver of East Texas. <https://www.uttyler.edu/president/missionstatement.php>

Excellent teachers must aspire to encourage and engage students with a wide range of abilities, interests, and personalities. UT Tyler has the responsibility of guiding and evaluating teacher candidates' effectiveness, knowledge and skills, and professional habits using many instruments and methods to ensure the highest quality of teacher performance in the complex classrooms of the 21st century.

A professional disposition includes principles or standards reinforcing teacher candidates' success in school and in the classroom. Professional dispositions include values, professional ethics, honesty, responsibility, and social justice. These beliefs and attitudes shape how an educator interacts with colleagues, students, and families. Each semester student dispositions are evaluated by course instructors and field supervisors in consultation with mentor teachers.

CEC ADVANCED SPECIALTY SET:

EDUCATIONAL DIAGNOSTICIAN SPECIALIST STANDARDS

Adopted July 2020

Advanced Standard 1 – Assessment. Educational diagnosticians demonstrate best practices of assessment, procedures, and report writing. It is critical that nonbiased assessment procedures are used in the selection of instruments, methods, and procedures for individuals with exceptional learning needs. Educational diagnosticians apply their knowledge and skill to all stages and purposes of evaluation including: prereferral and screening, recommendations for special education eligibility, monitoring and reporting learning progress in the general education curriculum, and other individualized educational program goals.

Advanced Standard 2 – Curricular Content Knowledge. Educational diagnosticians seek to deepen their professional knowledge and expand their expertise with instructional technologies, curriculum standards, effective teaching strategies, and assistive technologies to support access to learning.

Advanced Standard 3 – Programs, Services, and Outcomes. Educational diagnosticians apply their knowledge of cognitive science, learning theory, and instructional technologies to improve instructional programs. They advocate for a continuum of program options and services to ensure the appropriate instructional supports for individuals with exceptional learning needs.

Advanced Standard 4 – Research and Inquiry. Educational diagnosticians know models, theories, and philosophies, and research methods that form the basis for evidence-based practices in special education. They use educational research to improve instructional techniques, intervention strategies, and curricular materials.

Advanced Standard 5 – Leadership and Policy. Educational diagnosticians learn to use their deep understanding of the history of special education, current legal and ethical standards, and emerging issues to provide leadership. They promote high professional self-expectations and help others understand the needs of individuals with exceptional learning needs.

Advanced Standard 6 – Professional and Ethical Practice. Educational diagnosticians are guided by the professional ethics and practice standards. They have responsibility for promoting the success of individuals with exceptional learning needs, their families, and colleagues. They create supportive environments that safeguard the legal rights of students and their families. They model and promote ethical and professional practice.

Advanced Standard 7 – Collaboration. Educational diagnosticians have a deep understanding of the centrality and importance of consultation and collaboration to the roles within special education and use this deep understanding to integrate services for individuals with exceptional learning needs. They also understand the significance of the role of collaboration for both internal and external stakeholders, and apply their skill to promote understanding, resolve conflicts, and build consensus among both internal and external stakeholders to provide service to individuals with exceptional learning needs and their families.

Class Schedule

The schedule will be posted on the first day of classes. ☺
