

MEMORANDUM FOR STUDENTS ENROLLED IN CENG 4370

SUBJECT: CENG 4370 (Undergraduate Internship) Administrative Instructions

Course Description: Program provides for a learning experience in an engineering environment appropriate to the undergraduate level of work with a minimum of 150 hours of work. A written report of the experience and a presentation is required.

1. Welcome to a three hour undergraduate internship study, a course that allows you to work in the field to gain experience and course credit. In order to hit the ground running, students need to work in their chosen field. It allows you to bring the classroom into the field and the field into the classroom. Those in the field are required to be creative, life-long learners who understand contemporary issues and how they influence projects under their supervision. An undergraduate internship will require students (you!) to work within the discipline, apply skills you have to solve problems, and learn more applicable skills on the job. During this experience, you will be challenged and I am sure you will find it rewarding and fun! Your work supervisor must fill out required forms and perform an evaluation every 40 hours per the supervisor handbook. You are responsible for ensuring this occurs.
2. An undergraduate internship provides an opportunity to gain experiences not possible in the classroom. The three hour undergraduate internship requires a monthly evaluation by your supervisor, a diary, and a project paper that focuses on the objectives of the internship, whether the objectives were met, a discussion of the most helpful skills developed, what areas of additional preparation could have helped, what were the different areas of civil engineering that skills were employed during the internship, how the experience is applicable to career goals, and how the experience did or did not meet expectations. You are also to focus on accomplishing the goals of the course and communicate your achievement of those through your internship presentation.
3. There are many benefits to this course, among them the opportunity to apply academic learning to practice, adding depth and relevance to classroom work. Students will increase understanding of how specific projects relate to design and construction. A key component of this course is learning the importance of communication skills and how interactions among people are important aspects of job success at all levels.
4. Course Procedures:
 - a. Course procedures are outlined in the Internship Handbook given to students on the first day of class.
5. Assignments

The following provides a broad outline of the specific deliverables required as part of this course. The Internship Handbook provides more information in each area.

The Statement of Work and Objectives are to be submitted along with the Internship Agreement to the sponsor for their review.

b. Student Internship Contract

The student internship contract will be completed at the beginning of the semester or internship period. The purpose of the contract is to obligate the student to maintain his/her work hours and to be ethical in all academic matters among himself/herself, the university, and the sponsorship site.

A short activity statement for each day the intern works at the assigned internship site should be noted on the log sheet along with the number of hours the intern worked each day (up to the required 150 hours). One “Internship Daily Log” form should be completed for each week worked. This form may be copied as necessary.

e. Sponsor’s Internship Rating Sheet

At the end of the student’s internship experience or at the end of the academic semester, the student intern will provide the internship sponsor with this form. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware.
